Biography

J. Dudley Woodberry (b. 1934 - ) is dean emeritus and senior professor of Islamic studies at Fuller's School of Intercultural Studies and is considered one of the foremost Christian scholars on Islam. He has served as consultant on the Muslim world to President Carter, the State Department, USAID, and other U.S. government agencies. He has also been an active part of the Zwemer Institute for Muslim Studies and has served as coordinator and acting senior associate of the Muslim track of the Lausanne Committee for World Evangelism.

Woodbury served as dean of the School of World Mission, now the School of Intercultural Studies, from 1992-1999. He also served as a teacher in Pakistan and a pastor in Afghanistan and Saudi Arabia, and has ministered in at least 35 predominantly Muslim nations around the world.

Scope and Content

The Papers of Dr. J. Dudley Woodberry, 1934 - is filled with extensive research into the Muslim faith and how it relates to and can relate to the Christian faith. Major topics include: Muslim Popular Party, Dreams, Sufis, Qurani Healing and Medicine, Kabbalah, Saint Veneration, and various regions. Dr. Woodberry's papers include extensive Conversion Questionnaires which were collected and distributed by Dr. Woodberry and his colleagues. Other records include course teaching material, readers, syllabi, and bibliographies.
