WORLD MISSIONS SEMINAR - The F.M.P. is sponsoring weekly meetings, THURSDAY, 6 p.m., #304, to cover the larger evangelical missions and their work. A 45 min. discussion of policies and field work plus 15 min. of prayer will constitute the seminar. These discussions are geared to meet the need of those seeking God's will in reference to the field, give background of practical facts for future pastors seeking to establish a missions program and conference in their church, and provide fellowship and detailed knowledge for those already going to the field. The 6 p.m. hour was chosen so that most of the evening would be free for study. Oct. 15; Mr. Lewis, former missionary & western representative SIM; Topic—Communism in Africa and Literature work.

BENCHES are being fabricated for student's use and will be located in the colonnade on the first and third floors.

REMEMBER: Noon meals (Tuesdays through Fridays) are served from 12:35 to 12:55. Students are encouraged to eat early if they have no 5th period class—avoid the rush and long line!

COMPLAINTS -- dorms too noisy! Remember you have neighbors! If you want to make noise go to the Y.M.C.A or to Brookside Park; let's not have any more complaints from the neighbors.

silence...is sometimes especially golden:
(1) at the beginning of classes. All too often the professor's efforts to open class are drowned out in a babble of chatter. Why not show your courtesy and appreciation by cooperating with him at this point?
(2) at the opening of chapel, during the organ prelude. Use this quiet time for meditation and preparation of heart.

Your cooperation in this will be appreciated by the entire Student Council.

JUNIOR PRAYER GROUP for married and other non-dormitory students has changed location to Rm. 301. We welcome your sharing this portion of our class prayer responsibilities unless you have been otherwise excused by the Lord. Same time: 9:20 a.m. on Thursdays. A second group is forming so send notice of your most suitable time to Lloyd Jonas, Box 238.

The DEAD SEA SCROLLS will be discussed by Dr. LaSor tonight at Mission Covenant Church at the second session of the Fall Bible Conference. A filmstrip on the scrolls will be shown.
FILM will be shown — "Twice Convicted" — Technicolor with Noel Reyburn — Tuesday, 6 p.m., room 303. Everyone invited!

"THE BIBLE AND INSPIRATION" is the subject of an address by Dr. Lindsell on Wednesday eve. at the third session of the Bible Conference at Mission Covenant Church.

TEENIS and HANDBALL — game schedules for this week are now posted on the athletic board in Room 304. Each player is responsible for arranging a game time with his opponent and for posting the results on the athletic board before the end of each week of scheduled competition. For additional details contact Bob Lindegren (tennis) or Bob Skivington (handball).

DISCOUNTS are given by two local stations: (1) Signal Station, Walnut & Madison — 3¢ off per gal.; (2) Richfield Station — see Mayrene Cox for discount card.

The DINING HALL, by student request, has been opening five minutes early at noon. Unless more students use this privilege and come before the bell, the old schedule will be resumed. Everyone who has no last period class, please help out by coming early.
