FMF needs your help! As it is a student organization, it relies on the student body not only for contributions but also for the disbursement of funds. Any pertinent need should be brought to the attention of Alex Aronis, Mike Cassidy, Ron Brushwyler, or any of the prayer group leaders. R.B.

HEBREW THIS SUMMER! Do you desire to fulfill your Hebrew requirement this summer? This course can be taught if there are at least 15 students. If you are interested, send a note to John Koeker right away. R.E.W.B.

ENROLLMENT BLANKS for the Narramore Seminar in Counseling at Lake Ave. Congregational Church next Saturday are at the reception desk. Special rate for Seminary students $2.00 for the day, including the noon meal at the church. Registrations should be mailed to Dr. Narramore by Feb. 1.

"THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST." The U.S. customs official at New York was startled when Oscar Wilde stated, "I have nothing to declare but my genius." Come and decide if his modesty was justifiable. Hear his play which has been described as "a rondo capriccioso in which the artist's fingers run with crisp irresponsibility up and down the keyboard of life"—produced by Sir John Gielgud. Bring your lunch from home or the dining hall and listen while you eat, Wednesday at 12:30. M.C.

J.B. Students who need transportation or who can give transportation to J.B., please sign up at the front desk.

JUNIORS! Plan now for our next class social, Friday, Feb. 17, 7:30 p.m. (approx.)—a Progressive Dinner at three faculty homes. R.H.

THE STUDENTS INTERESTED IN DRAMATIC RELIGIOUS LITERATURE will continue to meet each Tuesday evening at 8:30 in Room 304 unless otherwise noted. All are welcome at any time. C.D.
