Office of Christian Community Offers Ways to Grow Closer to God

-- Spirituality Retreat for Lent

Lent, 40 days before Easter. The season traditionally set aside to prepare ourselves for remembering the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus. What will you do this Lent? Give up chocolates, movies, procrastinating on papers? Instead, why not set aside time to reflect anew on the true meaning of Easter? Join the Office of Christian Community for a Spirituality Retreat: on Friday, February 15 from 1:15 - 4:30 p.m. There will be a carpool leaving from Fuller at 1 p.m. The Retreat will be held at “The Old Mill,” 1120 Old Mill Road in San Marino. Mary-Ellen Ashcroft, a PhD student, writer, and teacher, will lead the retreat. The cost is only $3.

Thereafter, every Friday from 1:15 - 2:15 p.m. in the Prayer Garden, there will be a guided time of prayer and meditation on this theme. For more information, contact Claire Nye, OCC, 584-5322.

Spiritual Formation Breakfast

This quarter The Office of Christian Community welcomes Dr. Laura Robinson as our guest speaker at our Spiritual Formation breakfast. Her PhD dissertation focussed on “Forgiveness.” She will be sharing some thoughts in this regard on Thursday, February 7 in the Catalyst from 6:45 - 7:50 a.m. Breakfast is FREE! All are welcome. Contact Claire Nye with any questions at 584-5322.

OCC Offers Free Counseling

Are you struggling with relationship issues, family concerns, or career goals? Lori Boehning, Marriage and Family Care Intern at the Office of Christian Community, is now available for free short-term counseling. Lori is in her second year in the MDiv program with a Marriage and Family Ministries concentration. To find out more, please stop by OCC or call at 584-5322.

Bridge to Sobriety

Alcohol kills over three times more people each year than all illegal drugs together. If someone you know is experiencing problems with alcohol, treat it just as serious as you would if they had problems with cocaine or heroine. Bridge to Sobriety is a service of the Office of Christian Community and can help you find information or resources regarding chemical addictions. Contact Mary Ann Bowman (Box 1183) or Jim Johnson (Box 1167) if you have questions or need assistance. You may be the one God wants to use to help your friend or family member.

Chapel Services

Tuesday, February 5, 10 a.m. COMMUNITY PRAYER, Prayer Garden. Join the Fuller community as we continue to offer up prayer and praise to the Lord.

Wednesday, February 6, 10 a.m. COMMUNITY WORSHIP, Presbyterian Sanctuary. Our preacher will be Dr. Bill Pannell from our departments of Preaching and Evangelism. There will also be a special dramatic presentation on Moses as part of our worship. This will be an experience to lead us into new reflection on the wonderful works of God. Offices closed so all may attend.

Thursday, February 7, 10 a.m. SWM CHAPEL, Travis Auditorium. Dr. John Perkins, Founder of John M. Perkins Foundation for Reconciliation and Development and the Harambee Christian Family Center will be our speaker for today’s Chapel. His topic is “Leadership and Suffering”. All from the Fuller community are invited to attend.

Student Health Program Evaluation

It’s time to renegotiate our student health plans, so we need your input. The Office of Student Services will be gathering any suggestions, ideas, comments, complaints, critiques, praise from students about the Student Health Program. Your comments are part of our research to negotiate the best health plan for next year. Any time throughout this quarter, please take a minute to communicate your experience with either the LINA or Amerimed programs.

A.S.C. Highlights Peace and Justice Committee

The Peace and Justice Committee continues to seek to provide programs and resources addressing issues of human need. As we find ourselves in the throes of a war in the Middle East, we want to continue to keep all in prayer: The countries' leaders who make watershed decisions which affect us all, our families and friends who are presently in the Middle East, the innocent who are suffering at the hands of evil people, and the Church whose call, especially at this crucial time, is to stand prophetically against the evil of this world. The gospel message given to and modelled by our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ runs radically against the grain of this world's agenda of hate and greed. Let us continue to seek a biblical and Christ-like response to the situations which face us in our familial relationships, our friendships, our marriages, our work places and our ministries.

In February or March we will be sponsoring Charles Bester, a prisoner of Christian conscience who will speak at Fuller on his six-year detention in the Kroonstad prison in South Africa. Charles is the nephew of Africa Enterprise's founder, Michael Cassidy.

On Tuesday, April 9, Jim Wallis from Sojourners in Washington D.C. will join us for an evening program as well as chapel on Wednesday, April 10. These events will be co-sponsored with the Theology Graduate Union.

If you would like to ask questions, make comments, or sport the Chairperson of the committee a cup of coffee, you may contact me at FTS, Box 370, phone (213)257-9380 or Zachary Bright, FTS Box 708, phone (818)359-9316.

Editorial Column

Since the Gulf War began, the media has been peppered with the daily bleatings of the Christian anti-war lobby. They do not have a monopoly of opinion. All people are against the horrors of war. It is ironic that those same people can always be counted on to be a part of any liberal cause, especially the "pro-abortion lobby". If killing in warfare is wrong, and it is, why do they approve of it in the womb? At least a soldier has a machine-gun with which to defend himself.

Yet there is more to life, especially in the realpolitik of today's world, than mindlessly protesting against war. Those who oppose the United Nations action infer that the available choice is one between war and peace. That is not the case. The choice is between a world in which peace and justice prevail as a result of defending those values, and a world in which the tyrant and the bully prevail. Peace cannot simply be wished into existence. There are times when it has to be earned. This is one.

And although many fine people will probably die in the Gulf War, (which is tragic), more than fifty thousand children die each day from malnutrition. Where is the outpouring of grief for their tragically wasted lives? Are they not of equal value to the Lord? We should certainly be praying for the protection and speedy victory of the Allied Forces; and once the values of justice and freedom have triumphed, shouldn't we at Fuller take courage and exercise our considerable talents to alleviate the equally urgent tragedies of starvation and homelessness in a world which is dying without knowing Jesus Christ? Then our world will be just as well free, and we will have earned the right to feel at peace.

Follies Auditions!

“Fuller Follies is a tradition. (That means it happens every year.) Here’s how it works. Ok, there’s a M.C. (who, this year, is a mystery faculty duo). And there are all these acts, you know like bands and singers and lip-syncers, and magic shows, and funny skits, and whatever. And then all the Fuller people show up and we act crazy together and it builds community. (That’s a good thing.) Ok, so that’s what is supposed to happen. There’s only one hitch. See, you all, Fuller students, are supposed to be the acts (like a crazy talent show kind of thing) with some very talented people and some very brave hams. If you fit into either of these categories, please give Jess Vega a call (I know he will love to hear from you) at the Office of Student Services at 584-5436. C’mom...just do it!

The Pastor’s Study

Dr. Robert B. Munger, Fuller’s Pastor-at-Large, will continue his series of informal discussions in “The Pastor’s Study,” directly behind the Catalyst in 104 Carmell Hall each Tuesday from 11:45-12:45. Bring a brown bag lunch and chat with Dr. Munger as he shares on the topic: “What I’ve Learned About Walking with God in Times of War.”

International and German Lunches

Every Wednesday throughout the quarter, those who speak (or are learning to speak) German have lunch together from 12:30-1:30 p.m.on the far, right corner of the Refectory. Then, on Tuesdays, 1-2 p.m. International students share lunch together. All interested are welcome to join them.

Fuller Community Party

OSS and ASC are co-sponsoring a dance party to be held at one of Fuller’s most respected community houses, the Castano House. It’s called the Castano House because it used to be on Castano Street, but now it’s on Grandview Avenue, but it’s still called Castano because...well, all these details don’t really matter. What IS important is that everyone from the Fuller community who is interested in having fun, dancing for hours, and hanging out with friends (old or new) is invited to show up at 885 Grandview Avenue in Sierra Madre at 9 p.m. on February 1. Even “party-pooper-types” are invited because we have a “quiet” conversation area right next to the fireplace. Bring drinks, snacks will be provided. If you want a map, stop by the OSS office and pick one up.

CFD Resource Center

Dr. Rob Banks, Professor of the Ministry of the Laity, would like to extend a PERSONAL invitation to all students and interested persons to preview the Lay Ministry collection in the Christian Formation and Discipleship Resource Center. The collection includes materials from Christians in the marketplace and lay ministry training materials to materials on discipleship. Come “unleash your church’s potential!”

REGISTRATION FOR SPRING QUARTER. Registration for Spring Quarter will be held Tuesday - Friday, February 26 - March 1. Priority numbers and schedules will be posted on the Registrar’s Office Bulletin Board by Friday, February 8. Make sure you are prepared for registration by consulting your 1990-91 Student Handbook, pages 29-30. If you don’t have a new 1990-91 Student Handbook, you can pick one up at the Registrar’s Office or the Student Services Office.

SPRING AND SUMMER GRADUATES. If you expect to complete your degree requirements by the end of Spring quarter, make sure you ask your academic advisor for a Graduation Packet right away (do it when you see your advisor for Spring registration). It includes an Application for Graduation, which must be submitted by the end of the first week of Spring quarter. However, no Commencement information (including photo orders, childcare reservations, ticket requests, etc.) can be sent to you until we have your application, so do it as soon as possible.

All of the above (including the deadline) also applies to students who will complete their work in the Summer quarter but want to participate in the June Commencement (special restrictions apply; see your academic advisor for a copy of the policy, or contact the Registrar’s Office for details).

GRADUATION ANNOUNCEMENTS. Graduation announcements, created by Josten’s, are expected to be available for purchase in the Bookstore by March 1. Watch for posters around campus announcing their arrival. Please remember that announcements should not be used as invitations, since seating will require tickets until one-half hour before the ceremonies begin.

INCOMPLETES AND HOLDS (PAST QUARTERS). A reminder that students in all three schools who were granted an Incomplete in Fall Quarter classes must submit their work to their professors no later than Friday, March 15 (the last day of classes this quarter). Faculty are not empowered to extend this deadline, so please do not put them in an awkward position by asking for more time. Petitions for Extension of Incomplete must be filed through your academic advisor no later than the end of the ninth week of the quarter, and are granted only in the event that extenuating circumstances prevented you from completing the work. Holds granted in Summer Quarter classes (doctoral level classes) are due at the same time.

INCOMPLETES - WINTER QUARTER. If work in a master’s level (500 or 600 level) class is not completed by the end of the quarter due to extenuating circumstances, an Incomplete may be requested. Please remember:

1. It is necessary to complete a Request for Incomplete form, obtain the professor’s approval, and submit it to the Registrar’s Office by Friday of the tenth week (March 15). These forms are available from your academic advisor.

2. The basic expectation is that your work must be completed within the quarter unless extenuating circumstances prevent you from doing so. Not completing your work in a course does not automatically entitle you to an Incomplete. Incompletes are granted only on the basis of extenuating circumstances that prevented you from completing work for the course.

GREEK WAIVER EXAMINATION. The Greek Waiver Examination will be given on Wednesday, February 5 at 7:00 pm. Reservations must be made by contacting the Registrar’s Office no later than Tuesday, February 5. Call 584-5409, or send a note to FTS Box REG. The examination is offered during the fifth week of each quarter.
