Biography

Daniel Payton Fuller was born on August 28, 1928 in Los Angeles, California, the only child of Charles Edward Fuller and Grace Payton Fuller. His father Charles E. Fuller was at this time the pastor of Calvary Church in Placentia, California, which he had founded in 1925. Charles Fuller was also a pioneer radio evangelist, founder and director of the Old Fashioned Revival Hour and co-founder of Fuller Theological Seminary.

After graduation from South Pasadena High school in 1943 Dan Fuller enlisted in the U. S. Navy and began the officer-training program at Occidental College, Los Angeles, that same year. Eight months later he was transferred to the University of California at Berkeley to train in the Naval ROTC. In 1944 he graduated from the University of California and was commissioned as an ensign in the U. S. Navy which he served for fifteen months before being discharged in August 1946. After discharge he entered Princeton Theological Seminary. He was ordained to the Christian ministry at Immanuel Baptist Church of Pasadena, California and served as Assistant Pastor of the Park Street Church in Boston, Massachusetts from 1949 to 1950. That same year he resumed theological studies at Fuller Theological Seminary, enrolling in the seminary's second graduating class. Dr. Wilbur M. Smith, a founding faculty member, inspired him with a new interest in English Bible. He graduated with a B. D. in 1951 and a Th. M. in 1952. He became a teaching assistant in English Bible in 1953 and also taught at Fuller from 1954 to 1959. In the academic year 1953-54 he did residence work toward a Th. D. at Northern Baptist Theological Seminary, Chicago and received his Th. D. in 1957. That year he was made an assistant professor of English Bible at Fuller Seminary. He moved with his wife and four children to Basel, Switzerland in 1959 to commence studies under Drs. Bo Reicke, Oscar Cullmann, and Karl Barth, leading toward a D. Theol. degree, received in 1966 from the University of Basel, Switzerland.

After returning from Basel in late 1962, he was appointed to the office of Dean of the Faculty and served as Associate Professor of Hermeneutics at Fuller Seminary from 1963 to 1972. In 1972 he left the Dean's office and returned to full-time teaching as Professor of Hermeneutics. He became the senior professor of Hermeneutics on September 1, 1993 and retired from his full-time teaching position that same year, at the age of 68. He was awarded an Honorary Doctor of Divinity degree in 1993.

Dan Fuller's training and experience also include much in the field of practical Christian work. From 1946 until his father's death in March 1968, he assisted him in the broadcast of the Old Fashioned Revival Hour. He also worked for a year in producing 'The Old Fashioned Meeting', the television counterpart to the radio broadcast. In addition to several years' experience in various kinds of church work, he also engaged in collegiate evangelism with Campus Crusade for Christ. He was also Assistant Director of the Gospel Broadcasting Association, under whose auspices the Old Fashioned Revival Hour sent forth the gospel to an international audience weekly. He was appointed as president of the Fuller Evangelistic Association in 1968.

Dan Fuller is the author of four books, the most recent being his life work, The Unity of the Bible, published by Zondervan. His other works are Gospel and Law: Contrast or Continuum? Eerdmans, 1980; Give the Winds a Mighty Voice: The Life of Charles E. Fuller, Word, 1972; and Easter Faith and History, Eerdmans, 1965. His articles have also appeared in numerous theological journals, including the Scottish Journal of Theology, Theologische Zeitschrift, The Journal of the American Academy of Religion, The Christian Scholar's Review, The Westminster Theological Journal, and the Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society. His 14,500 – word article on Hermeneutics appears in the International Standard Bible Encyclopedia, Vol. 2, Eerdmans, 1982. Three of his articles have also appeared in festschriften in honor of George Eldon Ladd, Everett F. Harrison and David Allan Hubbard.

He was the Editor of Today's Christian, a monthly paper, sent out to supporters of the broadcast "The Joyful Sound" from 1972 to 1980 and also wrote two columns each month: "Highlights in the Life of Charles E. Fuller," and a devotional piece entitled "I was Just Thinking." Since 1996 he has maintained a website, "The Berean Corner," on classical inductive Bible study and biblical theology, a resource for ministers.

Daniel Fuller and his wife, Ruth Fuller (Ph. D. in Biblical Studies) have four children and six grandchildren.
