It's Fuller Follies Time!

It's here at last! The moment you have all been waiting for with bated breath and beating heart! Fuller Theological Seminary's own Fuller Follies makes its 1991 premiere this Friday evening in Travis Auditorium. This is the community event of the year and believe me, if you miss it, you'll kick yourself all year over it. I mean, where else can you go on a Friday evening to listen to some awesome music (featuring the musical talents of S.W.A.M.P.T., a gnarly (narly?) band), laugh at your fellow classmates and professors making fools out of themselves, chuckle over Pam Williams' now-famous comedy routine, and generally enjoy the warm company of our community? Seriously, I don't think there's a better time to be found this side of the 5 Freeway! So, here's all the important info. Memorize it or hold on to this Semi for a couple days (unless you're one of those who transport the Semi straight from your mailbox into the cardboard box on the floor, in which case it won't matter because you never read this in the first place!) So, we'll see you there!

Friday, February 22
Two Shows: 6:30 and 8:30 p.m.
Travis Auditorium
$2.00 at the Door

Who are those Bag-Heads? If you were at the Follies last year, you would know! That's Jess Vega and Lee Purkey, the hosts of last year's show. This year, we again have mystery hosts (at press time it's even a mystery to us) and you'll just have to be there to find out who they are!

Chapel Services

Tuesday, February 19, 10 a.m. PRESIDENT’S CONVOCATION, Travis Auditorium. Dr. David Hubbard will be meeting with the faculty, staff, and students for updates on various important topics concerning our Seminary.

Wednesday, February 20, 10 a.m. COMMUNITY WORSHIP, Presbyterian Sanctuary. Dr. Ruth Tucker, Visiting Professor from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, will be preaching today as part of her week-long lecture series. Her topic concerns “Missions and the Gulf War: Reflections from History.” Offices will be closed.

Thursday, February 21, 10 a.m. SWM CHAPEL, Travis Auditorium. Worship and reflection on issues raised in previous Chapel services. “When you come together, everyone has a hymn, or a word of instruction, a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation. All of these must be done for the strengthening of the church.” I Cor. 14:26. Discussion led by Bruce Thomson, SWM Chaplain.

Friday, February 22, 10 a.m. - 12 noon SWM CONVOCATION, Travis Auditorium. Dr. Dudley Woodberry and Lynn Montgomery from D.A.W.N. Ministries will present their views relating to “Raising a Family on the Mission Field.” A Question and Answer time will follow. All from the Fuller community are welcome.
Special Concerns Committees

Ethnic Concerns
Asian American Seminarian-Pastor Potluck

Come join us and invite a pastor, who is concerned for the “future of Asian American ministries.” You don’t have to be Asian to have the concern. It will be Monday, March 4 at 6-9:30 p.m. If you are interested and have not received an invitation yet, please contact Sandee Masuda at (818)281-5789.

Women’s Concerns
Saturday, March 2 at 7 p.m., Elaine Storky, author of What’s Right about Feminism will be speaking in the Travis Auditorium.

Mission Concerns
Please join the Mission Concerns Committee in praying for China Wednesday, February 20, at 5 p.m. in the Catalyst Lounge. We will have missionaries and/or students from China to speak about their country. If you are interested in ministry possibilities in China, these will be discussed also.

URBANA REUNION! If you attended Urbana ’90 and want to get together with fellow seminarians who were also there, keep your calendars clean for Wednesday, February 27 at 5 p.m. We will be sharing about our trips, post-Urbana blues, and of course, Auntie Jeannette! Join us in the Catalyst for a great time of fellowship.

Dr. Ruth Tucker to Deliver Lecture Series

The ASC, the Missions Concerns Committee, the Peace and Justice Concerns Committee, and the Women’s Concerns Committee welcome Dr. Ruth Tucker to Fuller Seminary on February 20 and 21. Ruth is a Church Historian and Author. She will be lecturing in her story-telling fashion under the title, “Stories from the Underside: Revising Church History.” Over her two day visit, Dr. Tucker will be speaking six times in a variety of situations, from Chapel service on Wednesday to an informal brown-bag chat to seminars and lectures. See the full page flyer attached to the back of the Semi for more information.

Mid-day Fast for SAVOR

For every $1 contributed to SAVOR, $15 of food can be purchased to aid Seminary students. Although the ASC provides funds for the personnel, the purchasing money for the food comes from donations, not from the Fuller Fund. Don’t forget the mid-day fast planned for February 10. We invite you to join us and to donate your lunch money to SAVOR. Someone will be collecting money in the Garth that day.

Fuller After Dark

On February 22, Fuller After Dark will not take place. Instead, the ASC encourages the Fuller community to enjoy the Fuller Follies at 7 p.m. in Travis Auditorium. Fuller After Dark will return the following week.

Where Does Our Fuller Fund Money Go?

During Registration it is certain that you will be asked to contribute to the Fuller Fund. In light of this reality, it is important for all students to make an educated decision. The Fuller Fund is an opportunity for students to support other students. All the money contributed to the Fuller Fund is filtered through the five concern committees on campus. Through these committees scholarships are given. The Missions Concern Committee receives the largest percentage of the Fund. This money goes to support summer mission interns. Ethnic-American students with special financial needs are given scholarship aid, as well as international students. So when you go through the registration line, consider giving some money to the Fuller Fund. Any contribution is appreciated, and a little goes a long way.

Denominational News

NO DENOMINATIONAL MEETINGS ON MONDAY, FEBRUARY 18 DUE TO THE PRESIDENTS' HOLIDAY.

METHODIST STUDENTS: Reverend Hands will be on campus Tuesday, February 19, representing the Minnesota Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. He will be available to meet with students from his conference who have ordination concerns or with any students considering the Methodist denomination for future ministry. He will also be recruiting for open positions in Minnesota. Anyone interested, call Church Relations at (818)584-5580.

School of World Mission

SWM Chaplains

Bruce and Margaret Thomson are the SWM Chaplains and are available to pray with all students of the School of World Mission. Please feel free to call them at their home (794-3154) or send a note to their box #1003 if they could be of help to you.

Attention LINA Health Insurance Subscribers:

If you are planning to use your LINA coverage to pay for expenses related to having a baby, you should be especially aware that LINA treats delivery as a surgical procedure and will only pay up to $130 times the unit value given in the 1974 California Relative Studies book. This amount is usually substantially lower than the full expense of delivery. Also, note that this limitation is contrary to previous published information about the plan. If you have any questions about the LINA policy coverage or about possible alternatives for next quarter, please contact Troy in OSS at 584-5435.

Financial Aid

RETURNING STUDENTS: MA and MDiv (SOT) and MA-CCSP (SWM) students must complete a grant application in order to receive any type of Fuller grant for 1991-92. Apps are due no later than April 15 (it will help Financial Aid if you submit your application early).

INTERNATIONAL ORDER OF THE KING'S SONS & DAUGHTERS This interdenominational organization offers $1000 scholarships to full-time MDiv students (U.S. or Canadian citizens) who have a B average in all undergraduate and graduate work. Inquire now if interested.

SOROPTIMIST SCHOLARSHIP Women with an outstanding academic record may apply for this $3000 scholarship. Consideration is given to one's “potential contribution to society.” Applications are due February 28.

Madison House Childcare

Babysitting available for different class sessions for children between the ages of 6mo-5yrs. Interesting, stimulation and developmentally appropriate program. Understanding and caring staff present. Call Cherry, Monday-Thursday, 9 am-3 pm at 793-3827.

Wilsondisk Training Cancelled in Library

Due to lack of response, Wilsondisk training will be suspended until spring break. The future training sessions will be announced in the SEMI. On-line computerized databases provide quick access to bibliographic references to books, articles, as well as dissertations. McAlister Library has access to over a hundred databases in virtually all fields. The searches are conducted by Reference Librarian on Saturdays for a fee. For further information about this service, please see Miss Hwang at the Reference desk during week-days.

CFD Resource Center

Looking for a “rad” lesson for your high school ministry? Needing some “catchy” ideas for a restless elementary Sunday School class? We can help! Before you or your church dip into those forever tight budgets, come preview our terrific selection of resource materials. The Christian Formation and Discipleship Resource Center is available 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. Monday - Friday, just north of the mail center of Ford Place. Come and see what we can do for you!

Exciting New Fuller Class for Couples

This spring, an exciting new class for couples, “Career, Marriage and Faith” will be offered by the School of Psychology. The course, taught by Dr. Richard Hunt, is designed for ALL COUPLES — married, engaged, or dating. Couples from SOT, SWM, and SOP are encouraged to enroll in this class and participate in the wonderful opportunity of celebrating God’s love in your lives. Interested couples should know that BOTH partners MUST attend class, and at least one partner must enroll for either credit or audit. Childcare is available free of charge at Madison House. Please feel free to call Dr. Richard Hunt with any questions at 584-5553 or 584-5500.

Commuters with Compact Cars

More parking spots have been created by making small compact spots which are labeled as such. It is very tight, however, when full sized cars have to park in the compact spots. So, if your car is small, please look for compact car spots so the larger cars can park without having to SQUEEZE.

Thank You for Your Prayers!

Karen (SOP) and Dan Struble thank you, the Fuller community, for your support and prayers. Dan’s anticipated departure to the Persian Gulf has been delayed, and there is a slim chance that he may not have to go at all. They request our continued prayers.

"Women in Ministry" Therapy Group

Cross-cultural ministry can challenge us at our core. If you would like a place to explore your experience in mission or to prepare for an upcoming period of service—or if you just want a safe group where your mission interest is accepted—then consider joining the WOMEN IN MISSION therapy group which meets weekly in Finch Hall. For more information contact Esther Wakeman.

Bridge to Sobriety

A cost-benefit study by NIAAA shows that for every dollar spent in Alcohol and Drug Treatment, there would be three dollars in benefits returned to the nation. Yet in some states, public welfare recipients get more from the state if they continue drinking than is paid to a rehabilitation center if they try to stop. Take the time to know the facts and make the effort to help those who are caught up in the abuse of alcohol or other drugs. Bridge to Sobriety is a service of the Office of Christian Community and can help you find information or resources regarding chemical addictions. Contact Mary Ann Bowman (Box 1183) or Jim Johnson (Box 1167) for assistance.

The SEMI appears each week as a service to the Fuller community by the Office of Student Services, Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena, California 91182. Notices may be submitted to the Editor (Kreyssler Hall, 2nd Floor) until 5 p.m. on the Friday a week and a half prior to the date of publication. No late notices can be accepted. Users will be charged for notices which exceed 75 words in length. Notices from individuals or churches for events not directly sponsored by a Fuller office or organization will be printed in the “Ads” section and charged per word. Final editorial responsibility rests with Ruth Fuglie, Director of the Office of Student Services. For more information please contact Vicki Luna, Editor, in the Office of Student Services at 584-5430.
Advertising

This section of the SEMI is available for the announcement of events or services not directly offered by a Fuller office or organization. Space is sold on a per-word basis. For members of the Fuller community and their families: $5.00 for the first 25 words, and $.15 per word after that. For off-campus users: $7.50 for the first 25 words, and $.25 per word after that. Ads must be paid by cash or check in advance. The Office of Student Services may be contacted for additional details at 584-5430 during regular business hours. Note: Neither Fuller Seminary nor the Office of Student Services is responsible for the quality of the services or products advertised on this page.
