

THE FULLER SYMPOSIUM ON THE INTEGRATION OF PSYCHOLOGY AND THEOLOGY

RELATIONAL INTEGRATION & PSYCHOTHERAPY

with STEVEN SANDAGE, PHD

FEBRUARY 15–17, 2017

TRAVIS AUDITORIUM, FULLER THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15

10:00 am–12:00 noon: A Differentiation-Based Approach (2 CE credits offered)
Respondent: Evelyne Reisacher, Associate Professor of Islamic Studies and Intercultural Relations, School of Intercultural Studies

12:00 noon–1:30 pm: Alumni Luncheon: Payton 101 (registration required)

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 16

10:00 am–12:00 noon: Diversity and Justice in Healing (2 CE credits offered)
Respondent: Miyoung Yoon Hammer, Associate Professor of Marital and Family Therapy and Chair of the Department of Marriage and Family, School of Psychology

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 17

10:00 am–12:00 noon: Trinity, Trauma, and Triangles (2 CE credits offered)
Respondent: Tommy Givens, Assistant Professor of New Testament Studies, School of Theology

12:00 noon–1:30 pm: School of Psychology Student and Prospective Student Luncheon: Payton 101

VISIT FULLER.EDU/SYMPOSIUM FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

including bios, Continuing Education details, parking information, and campus maps.

GUEST LECTURER:

STEVEN J. SANDAGE

Steven J. Sandage is the Albert and Jessie Danielsen Professor of Psychology of Religion and Theology at Boston University and director of research at the Danielsen Institute. He has coauthored several books, including most recently Forgiveness and Spirituality in Psychotherapy: A Relational Approach and Transforming Spirituality: Integrating Theology and Psychology, as well as many articles and book chapters in the areas of forgiveness, narcissism, intercultural competence, and suicidology.

Dr. Sandage has recently been collaborating with researchers and clinicians at the University of Minnesota Medical School to study forgiveness in the treatment of Borderline Personality Disorder and is also a research member of the Fetzer Forgiveness Research Network and the Institute for Research on Psychology and Spirituality.

Dr. Sandage is a licensed psychologist with 20 years of clinical experience in a variety of settings and is currently in practice at the Danielsen Institute, where he specializes in couples and family therapy, multicultural therapy, and spiritually integrative therapy. He also provides diversity consultation and training to leaders in education, business, therapy, and ministry.

RESPONDENTS:

TOMMY GIVENS

Assistant Professor of New Testament Studies
School of Theology

MIYOUNG YOON HAMMER

Associate Professor of Marital and Family Therapy and Chair of the Department of Marriage and Family
School of Psychology

EVELYNE A. REISACHER

Associate Professor of Islamic Studies and Intercultural Relations
School of Intercultural Studies

The Fuller Symposium on the Integration of Psychology and Theology was established to encourage the discovery of new relationships between the Christian faith and the discipline of psychology. For more information, email integration@fuller.edu.

Fuller Theological Seminary/Graduate School of Psychology is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. Fuller Theological Seminary's School of Psychology maintains responsibility for this program and its content.