Integration and Integrity: The Christian Therapist as Peacemaker

Fuller Theological Seminary

Cameron Lee

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.fuller.edu/integrationsymposium

Part of the Religious Thought, Theology and Philosophy of Religion Commons

Recommended Citation
Fuller Theological Seminary and Lee, Cameron, "Integration and Integrity: The Christian Therapist as Peacemaker" (2018). Integration Symposium. 11.
https://digitalcommons.fuller.edu/integrationsymposium/11

This Conference Proceeding is brought to you for free and open access by the School of Psychology at Digital Commons @ Fuller. It has been accepted for inclusion in Integration Symposium by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Fuller. For more information, please contact archives@fuller.edu.
THE FULLER SYMPOSIUM ON THE INTEGRATION OF PSYCHOLOGY AND THEOLOGY

Integration and Integrity:
THE CHRISTIAN THERAPIST AS PEACEMAKER
WITH CAMERON LEE, PHD

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21
10:00 am–12:00 pm Vocation, Vision, and Story: Living into Shalom
Respondent: Terry D. Hargrave, PhD
Respondent: Hak Joon Lee, PhD

12:15–2:00 pm Alumni Luncheon with Cameron Lee, PhD

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22
10:00 am–12:00 pm Hope and Humility as Clinical Virtues
Respondent: Pamela Ebstyne King, PhD
Respondent: Alexis D. Abernethy, PhD

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23
10:00 am–12:00 pm Compassion and Sabbath as Clinical Virtues
Respondent: Miyoung Yoon Hammer, PhD
Respondent: Johnny Ramírez-Johnson, EdD

10:00 am –2:00 pm Fuller Picture: School of Psychology, Payton 101
GUEST LECTURER

CAMERON LEE, PHD
Cameron Lee is a professor of marriage and family studies in the School of Psychology at Fuller Seminary and has been a member of Fuller’s Marriage and Family program faculty since 1986. In addition to teaching marriage and family studies courses on the Fuller campus, he also speaks off campus as a Certified Family Life Educator. He is a licensed Family Wellness Trainer and a member of the National Council on Family Relations. Dr. Lee’s current project is the development of the Fuller Institute for Relationship Education (FIRE), which seeks to help congregations create sustainable marriage and relationship education ministries through the low-cost training of volunteer leaders. Dr. Lee teaches and preaches regularly in church settings, serving as a teaching pastor and licensed minister in the congregation where he is a member.

RESPONDENTS

ALEXIS D. ABERNETHY, PHD
Professor of Psychology
Department of Doctoral Psychology, School of Psychology

HAK JOON LEE, PHD
Lewis B. Smedes Professor of Christian Ethics
School of Theology

MIYOUNG YOON HAMMER, PHD
Associate Professor of Marital and Family Therapy and Department Chair Department of Marriage and Family, School of Psychology

JOHNNY RAMÍREZ-JOHNSON, EDD
Professor of Anthropology, Professor Del Centro Latino
School of Intercultural Studies

TERRY D. HARGRAVE, PHD
Evelyn and Frank Freed Professor of Marital and Family Therapy
Department of Marriage and Family, School of Psychology

BRAD D. STRAWN, PHD
Evelyn and Frank Freed Professor of the Integration of Psychology and Theology
Department of Doctoral Psychology, School of Psychology

PAMELA EBSTYNE KING, PHD
Peter L. Benson Associate Professor of Applied Developmental Science
Department of Marriage and Family, School of Psychology

The Fuller Symposium on the Integration of Psychology and Theology, also known as the Integration Symposium, was established to encourage the discovery of new relationships between the Christian faith and the discipline of psychology. For more information, email integration@fuller.edu.