CHAPEL SCHEDULE

Tuesday  Dr. David Allan Hubbard
Wednesday Mr. John Piper, Senior Student, School of Theology
Thursday  Mr. Paul Van Oss, member of Fuller Board of Trustees and executive of Youth for Christ International.
Friday   Dr. Vahe Simonian, Pastor, Pasadena Presbyterian Church.

ADVANCE ANNOUNCEMENT of special events in Chapel next week: On Tuesday and Wednesday our visitor will be Dr. John Sinclair, Secretary for Latin America of the United Presbyterian Church. He will be the 6th annual Special Lecturer on Church Growth and will deliver four addresses—two at the Chapel service and two in Room 301 at 2:00 p.m. His lecture topics are:

Chapel, March 30: Life and Experience of First Century Churches
Room 301, March 30: Life and Experience of Twentieth Century Churches in Latin America—The Task and Frustration of "The Gardener."
Chapel, March 31: Crucial Events in "The Growing Season."
Room 301, March 31: Congregational Self Analysis and Renewal.

April 1 and 2: Dr. Karl Olsson and the Rev. Bruce Larson of Faith at Work.
April 1: Quarterly Day of Prayer.

Make plans now for full participation in these important events.

Friday, March 26, is the last day for late registration, and no courses can be added after that date. Courses may be dropped from your schedule up to April 23. ML

The Student Journal—Studia Biblica et Theologica is being distributed this week. You have a "package" notice in your mailbox. Exchange that notice with Kathy Dussert, at the receptionist's desk, for one journal. If you want more than one, they may be available from Jim Bradley. Notify him if you're interested. If you do not receive a "package" notice and you have attended Fuller for two quarters this year, notify Jim Bradley. GT

RENEWAL TEAM. Numbers of Fuller students and their wives have been involved this year in a church outreach "Faith Renewal" team that has evolved out of a weekly fellowship time together. Students interested in knowing more about this team are invited to meet with Dr. Bob Munger, coordinator Jon Wilson and other members of the team this Wednesday after chapel in the student lounge. Everyone is welcome. JW

ALL METHODIST STUDENTS who will be wanting courses in Methodist Polity next fall, and who must also have Methodist Church History by June, 1972, please leave your name with Dean Fuller's secretary. DPF

STUDENT COUNCIL MEETING, Friday, 7:00 a.m., in Council Chambers. GT

ATTENTION, HOPEFUL GRADUATES OF 1971 (Theology, Psychology and Missions): Meet this Friday following chapel. Come with recommendations for a Baccalaureate speaker, and with suggestions for a senior gift to the school. SWB
Juniors and Middlers: It is time to elect new class officers for next year. Write in your nominations for class president and council representative on the sign-up sheet on the Board of Declaration. If interested in serving on Student Council, nominate yourself for either of these two offices. SWB

A REMINDER – that the first Fuller Golf Tournament is coming this quarter. If you want to enter, sign the sheet on the student lounge bulletin board, play three rounds at Brookside #2, and record your scores after your name. GT

There will be a BRIEF organizational meeting of the Ethnic Involvement Committee Thursday at 12:30 in the Geneva Room. SO

American Baptist Students are invited to a special coffee hour with the Rev. Terry Sullivan, Area Minister of our region, immediately after chapel on Tuesday, March 30, in the Geneva Room. CEL

Seniors: The Rev. Paul Cox, minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Redondo Beach, Calif., will be on campus Thursday, March 25, to interview for an assistant at his church. Responsibilities are one-half youth and one-half adult education and shared ministry. They have an assistant and a C.E. director. See Angie Armstrong in the Alumni Office for an appointment.

The Rev. William Smith from Dallas, Texas, president of Christ as Life, Inc., will be in Pasadena on March 24-26 (Wednesday-Friday). Special meetings on the life in Christ and the ministry of the Holy Spirit will be held at the Saga Motor Hotel, 1633 E. Colorado, each evening at 7:30 p.m. Fuller men who are now working in the organization will be accompanying Mr. Smith. All interested students are invited to attend the meetings. M. Silvey (alum).
