April 10, 1961

THE SEMI

SCHEDULE FOR THIS WEEK:

8:00—8:45
8:50—9:35
9:40—10:40 Chapel

10:40—11:00 Free Time
11:00—11:45
11:45—12:30

PLEASE COOPERATE IN MAINTAINING A "Good Neighbor Policy" with the Women's Club across the street. On several occasions, students have driven over their lawn in order to have access to parking space at our 150 N. Oakland dormitory. On other occasions sports activities have been carried on using the front lawn of the Women's Club as a portion of the recreational area. Your cooperation in refraining from these activities will be appreciated. RDC.

A STAGE MANAGER is needed for Christ in the Concrete City. No experience is required! If you are interested, please see Carter Doran as soon as possible. PCD.

THIS IS A PERSONAL NOTICE. Please do not read. "Dear Clem, Glad to hear the Spring Banquet is going to be May 5 in the beautiful new Westminster Pres. banquet hall. I bet you're really excited. Jay Grimstead will be a real scream as MC. Hope to hear from you soon. Your 'pal,' Gertrude."

"GIVE US YOUR TESTIMONY" might be the terminology with which Edward R. Murrow asked Eleanor Roosevelt, Helen Keller, Will Durant, and Carl Sandburg for a statement of their personal beliefs. Consider the influence of the opinions of these leaders, and determine whether your statements of Christian belief will be as influential. Record Club, Wednesday 12:30 to 1:05, Rm. 301; bring your lunch. GE.

PRIVATE SPEECH SESSIONS will begin Wednesday of this week. Sign for an appointment by Friday of this week; no appointments made after Friday. The appointment sheet will be posted outside Mr. Enell's office (enter by south door of Dorm 115; office is first door to your right). Please read carefully the posted instructions. GE.

JUNIORS: Mr. Enell will be offering one special afternoon session to instruct you in the use of the International Phonetic Alphabet (that which is used in your Kenyon & Knott Pronouncing Dictionary); the information from this session will be essential as a prelude to your private session of the third quarter. Thursday, 2:05, in the Chapel. GE.

TEXTBOOKS for religious drama are now available in the bookstore. Please bring your text to class Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. GE.

SOFTBALL STARTS THIS NEXT WEEK, April 17, with games being played at Jefferson Recreational Center, 1501 E. Villa, Pasadena. Games to be played Mondays 5:30-7:00 p.m. and Thursdays 5:00-6:30 p.m. Schedule in next SEMI. Teams will be Juniors, M1 (first year Middlers), M2 (second year Middlers) and Seniors. Any questions, contact Casey Stengel. TO.

Dear Hazel, Will you please get Clem on the ball about the Spring Banquet. It's only 3 weeks from Friday and I haven't heard a thing from him. Remind him that tickets are on sale next Monday. Thanks. Gertrude.

SENIORS: Due date on your gift is April 15. 50% have given---you (yes you) have not. Lest you develop guilt feelings and become victim of anxieties, forward your gift to Geo. Erickson via desk.

(Over, please)
THE REV. JOHN R. W. STOTT, Payton Lecturer for 1961, will be conducting a Special Preaching Mission at Lake Ave. Congregational Church at 7:30 p.m. on April 11, 12, 13, and 14. His theme will be "The Teachings of Jesus" and the topics will be: His Teaching about Himself (11), His Teaching about Man (12), His Teaching about His Death (13), and His Teaching about the New Birth (14). A welcome is extended to all.

INSTRUCTION IN GERMAN. Mr. H. H. Wiebe, a retired German teacher, from the Universities of Nebraska, Illinois, and California, and former head of the German Department of Glendale College, is interested in giving lessons in German to anyone who may be interested, for $3.00 a lesson. Mr. Wiebe is a devoted Christian and a member of the Glendale Presbyterian Church. He may be contacted at the following address: 438 Burchett Street, Glendale 3; Citrus 1-1380. FKJ.

WHEN ASKING YOUR DATE to the Spring Banquet, use this universally-socially-acceptable form: "Hello _____, bet you can't guess who this is. Oh, you recognized me."
(Alternate: "Well, this is ____.") Whatchadoin'Fridaythe5thofMay? Well, you wouldn'twannagototheSpring Banquet with me, wouldya? Say, that's great!" (Alternate: "Well, thanks anyway.") "It starts at 7 o'clock. Wear somethin' that lilacs will go good with. I'll see ya'. Oh, by the way, you can drive, can'tcha? Great, goodbye!" (Minor variations to fit specific cases are acceptable.)