He also did graduate study at Loyola University, Chicago, 1941; Indiana University, 1944; New College, Edinburgh, Scotland, 1953.

In 1941 Dr. Henry was ordained to the Baptist Ministry in the American Baptist Convention.

He is the author of the following books: A Doorway to Heaven, 1941; Successful Church Publicity, 1942; Remaking the Modern Mind, 1948; The Uneasy Conscience of Fundamentalism, 1948; Giving a Reason for Our Hope, 1949; The Protestant Dilemma, 1949; Notes on the Doctrine of God, 1949; Fifty Years of Protestant Theology, 1950; The Drift of Western Thought, 1951; Personal Idealism and Strong's Theology, 1951; Glimpses of a Sacred Land, 1953; Christian Personal Ethics, 1957; Evangelical Responsibility in Contemporary Theology, 1957. Dr. Henry was Chairman of the Philosophy of Religion Department, Northern Baptist Theological Seminary (Chicago), 1942-1947; Professor of Theology and Christian Philosophy, Fuller Theological Seminary (Pasadena), 1947-1957; also served as visiting professor of theology at Wheaton College, Gordon Divinity School (Beverly Farms, Mass.), and Winona Lake (Indiana) Summer School of Theology, 1952.

Dr. Henry has lectured and preached extensively in colleges and seminaries, at Bible conferences and in churches throughout America. He is presently the Editor of Christianity Today, a fortnightly publication, which he helped to bring into being in October, 1956.

Fuller Theological Seminary instituted the Payton Lectures in 1948, providing for a series of divinity lectures annually by a competent scholar outside the regular faculty, in one of the following areas: the uniqueness or confirmation of the historic Christian faith, the confutation of non-Christian or sub-Christian views, or the formulation of Biblical doctrines.

The Lectures are named for Dr. and Mrs. John E. Payton, the parents of Mrs. Charles E. Fuller, wife of the founder of the Seminary.
