MISSIONS SEMINAR 748 will reconvene on May 3. Members of this class, please take note.

FLOWERS FOR THE BANQUET. Arrangements have been made for a discount to Fuller students on corsages for the banquet. Just go to Whitford's Florists, 343 E. Colorado; mention you are a student at Fuller. T.O.

SOFTBALL: M2 (second year Middlers) whipped the Juniors 17-8 last Saturday. Schedule for this week: Sat. May 6, M2 vs. Seniors; Monday, May 8, M1 (first year Middlers) vs. Juniors. T.O.

JUNIORS: Needed for the Jr. Class Beach Party, May 13: guitar, banjo, bongo, etc., players to add to the atmosphere. If you are or know of such a player, please contact Ralph Wright. R.W.

INFORMATION ON THE SPRING BANQUET. The Social Committee has arranged for substantial reductions in corsage prices at Marsh's Florists, 150 N. Lake. You may place your order by telephone at SY 3-4277 and he will deliver. Mention that you are from Fuller Seminary.

Ticket sales for the Spring Banquet are now closed. There can be no additions or refunds. However, there are several choice places at front and center tables which were reserved and are now open. If you want to change tables to be nearer the front, see Betty at the desk.

SEMI-FORMAL means dark suits for guys and formals or real fancy dresses for gals. FLOWERS AND BOUTONNIERES are definitely in order.

BE SURE to bring your tickets to the banquet with you.

THERE WILL BE NO EVENING DINNER SERVED IN THE REFECTORY, May 5. See you at the Spring Banquet.

Mrs. Dorothy Byron and Mrs. Marjorie Lewis will be entertaining at the Spring Banquet with light opera, comedy, etc. Ask Harry Kawahara if he thinks they're good.

If you've changed your date or seats at the Spring Banquet, remember to change the book at the front desk. COULD BE EMBARRASSING!
