Tuesday	Dr. Donald Tweedie, Professor of Psychology. Leader, Ron McHattie
Wednesday	The Rev. Robert Scoon, Librarian. Leader, Jim Richardson
Thursday	The Rev. Hal Stack, Chaplain of the Pasadena Police Department and President of Procurement Service, Inc.
Friday	Mr. Ken Birch, former intern and candidate for D.Min. Leader, Stephen Laing.

FACULTY AND GRADUATES are reminded to respond to the invitation to the dinner to be held on May 21. RNS

COMBINED C.I.M./INTERNSHIP COMMITTEES meet at 12:30 Tuesday (today!) in the refectory.

Are you presently involved in directing youth groups in a church or will you soon be responsible for such programs? No one knows as much as all of us, so plan to attend the Youth Worker's Symposium, Tuesday, May 11 at 1:00 in room 301. Bring your best ideas and we will share them with each other.

ATTENTION D.MIN. (formerly D.Th.P.) PROSPECTS: The GRE Area Examination will be given on Monday, May 10. If you have not contacted Dr. Daane's office about taking this examination, please do so by Friday, May 7. JT

PARKING: FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH LOT. Students using the church parking lot (northeast corner of Ford Place and Los Robles) may expect future parking to result in either police citations or impounding of the vehicle. Student non-compliance with repeated requests by the church staff to park elsewhere has forced the church board to notify the Seminary business office of the impending citations and impounding of vehicles. R. D. Curley
