A Mom’s Perspective on Madison House
by Jean Edwards, spouse of Paul Edwards, MDiv student

From the street it looks like “grandmother’s house.” And for many of us at Fuller who are far from our family and home friends, Madison House does provide some of the comfort that Grandma would if she could. Babies, toddlers, and pre-schoolers from the Fuller community all find a safe, fun and stimulating series of child-care sessions. As a mom, and a 21/2 year veteran of Madison House, I am delighted to share some personal insights into my satisfaction with the child care provided there.

Madison House is a truly multi-cultural setting for the little ones. This year my daughter learned to sin “God is So Good” in English, Chinese, and Zambian. The demographics at Madison House mirror the diversity of Fuller. It’s a great way to stay (or get) connected with the Fuller community. As a Fuller spouse living off campus, coming and going from Madison House put me in touch with other Fuller parents and helped heal some of my off-campus isolation.

I noticed something interesting whenever I pick up my daughter, Allegra, from Madison House. There seem to be equal numbers of moms and dads picking up and dropping off kids. This models “inclusivity” for children, and means that if you’re a dad OR a mom, you’ll see other viable models of parenthood at close range!

The director, Mrs. Cherry Chua is always available to answer your questions and serve as a resource person. The staff of teachers and caregivers are largely from the Fuller community, and work closely with Cherry to provide much more than “babysitting.”

An Opportunity to Help with Madison House Needs

Madison House needs lots of items for their facility. Can you help? Do you have something from this list or anything else that you think may be useful for the daycare of children 8 months to 5 years? Please call Cherry Chua at 793-3827, Monday - Thursday, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. if you can help. Thank you!

Can you believe it is already Memorial Day?

I'm sure! Time is going too fast. Don't forget to stay home Monday and remember those in the armed services we are memorializing. (or you could study, if you're really responsible and committed to your seminary education!)

Bridge to Sobriety

Many of us came to Fuller because we felt that education and experiences would provide us with the knowledge and ability we need to do well in our chosen ministries. Many of our stereotypes and myths are broken down after being exposed to and learning about other people and cultures. Abuse of alcohol and other drugs is a significant problem in our society and even our churches. More and more we will be approached by people or families suffering from addiction. Bridge-to-Sobriety asks you to look at your views on addiction. Are your views formulated by education, training, supervised experiences? Or are your views based on “things you have heard” or opinions of poorly trained but well-meaning lay persons, or the media? Bridge to Sobriety offers training and experiences, literature for a class project, seminars and community lectures to educate you on this prevalent problem in our world. We have practicums and CPE’s available to give you exposure to this population. Contact the Office of Christian Community for information on how to access this pool of information and support. Which price looks better to you?

Your typical dot matrix printer.

The new Apple StyleWriter.

Which is why you might want to know about the new Apple® StyleWriter® printer. It gives you crisp, laser-quality printing for about what you’d expect to pay for a dot matrix printer.

Let’s face it. The more impressive your papers and projects look, the more impact your ideas will have.

It’s compact (at just 13" x 5" x 8," it fits easily in the most cramped dorm room). It’s quiet (so quiet you can print at 3 a.m. without waking up your roommate).

And it’s from Apple, designed to get everything out of a Macintosh® computer that Apple built into it. Not just the power to look your best. The power to be your best.
