REVEREND PROFESSOR KWAME BEDIAKO is the executive director of the Akrofi-Christaller Memorial Centre in Ghana, and director of the Oxford Centre for Mission Studies in Oxford, UK. He earned graduate degrees in literature from the University of Bordeaux, and received his Ph.D. from the University of Aberdeen. His publications include Jesus in Africa: The Christian Gospel in African History and Experience; Christianity in Africa: The Renewal of Non-Western Religion and Theology; and Identity: The Impact of Culture upon Christian Thought in the Second Century and Modern Africa.
The annual School of Theology Payton Lectures alternately explore themes concerning the implications of Christian faith in contemporary culture and the formulation of biblical doctrine.

This year's Payton Lectures will coincide with the Global Ministry Connections 2000 missions fair, sponsored by the Missions Concerns Committee of Fuller Seminary. This event will take place on October 11 and 12 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Garth. For more information, contact Kristin Lindquist at 626-564-0878.

The Payton Lectures are free and open to the public. For more information, contact the School of Theology Dean's Office at 626-584-5300 or E-mail theology@fuller.edu

Fuller Theological Seminary is an evangelical, multidenominational community dedicated to the preparation of men and women for the manifold ministries of Christ and his Church.
