ATTENTION, RETURNING STUDENTS (faculty members may also note): Two new changes in the Library: (1) The dictionary catalog has been divided. It is now an Author, Title & Serial List. The Subject cards have been moved into the new case (standing around the corner from the old catalog). We now have a Subject index and an Author, Title & Serial index to our library. (2) Current Periodicals are placed in the Reading Room as they arrive—they remain there two weeks. Watch signs for most recent. C.B.A.

LUNCHTIME RECORD CLUB will meet on Wednesdays from 12:35 to 1:05 in Room 301. Students are encouraged to bring a bag lunch or a tray from the cafeteria, and to enjoy listening to the poetic, dramatic, homiletic, and political records available in the speech record library. Students enrolled in Preaching 900 or 910 may submit evaluative reactions to the records for credit. This week we shall consider the persuasive appeal and rhetorical structure of selections from My Fair Lady and The Music Man. G.E.

PRESBYTERIAN FELLOWSHIP Tuesday, October 3, 3:00 p.m. in the Refectory. Informal coffee hour. Very important meeting. R. Donald Weber, Director of Public Relations, will speak to us concerning the relation of the Seminary to the Presbyterian Church. New students especially are urged to attend. J.H.

All students who are from the CHRISTIAN & MISSIONARY ALLIANCE and those who are interested are invited to attend a meeting in Room 304 at 10:20 following Chapel on Wednesday, Oct. 4.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS: It is important that all students here on visas contact the Immigration Bureau in Los Angeles (510 S. Vermont) if any outside employment is anticipated. Immediate permission may be secured by visiting the office in Los Angeles; or a work permit form may be secured from the Registrar's Office and mailed in. In the latter case, permission to work probably would be received after a few weeks. See the Registrar regarding any questions. C.H.

ATTENTION, FLAG FOOTBALLERS: Flag Football will start on Oct. 7 at 9:00 a.m. SHARP. All dorms wishing to field a team should make up a roster (please indicate who the captain is and the name of your conglomeration) and give it to Bob Bard or Terry Olson. Likewise for the married students who are blessed with both time and energy. Watch for more information in the Refectory. B.B. & T.O.

IF YOU HAVE NOT ALREADY DONE SO, please see the Receptionist for your mailbox number and combination.

PHILOTHEAN FELLOWSHIP. Dr. Wm. C. Lantz will present a nine-week series of lectures entitled "Christian Psychodynamics." The course will be held in the Seminary Chapel every Thursday evening from 7:30 to 9:00, beginning Oct. 5, and will continue through November. No tuition fee.
