THIS WEEK is "Get Acquainted Week" at Fuller Seminary. A name tag has been provided for every student by the new officers of the Junior Class. Please wear your name tag each day this week.

JUNIOR CLASS election results: President, Lorne Hale; Vice-Pres., Larry DeWitt; Secretary-Treasurer, Shirley Jones.

F.M.P. PRAYER GROUP LEADERS, please note: All prayer information will be distributed to you as it comes in. The missionary periodical file is as up-to-date as can be expected. All new periodicals will be filed there rather than being circulated. Please use it. (North wall, reading room--for everyone's edification and use.) Please inform Vick Halterman of the time of your individual Prayer Group meetings as soon as possible. Thank you. V.E.H.

BOOKSTORE ACCOUNTS are due by October 10th to avoid loss of 10% forfeiture.

Dr. JOHN A. MACKAY, former President of Princeton Theological Seminary, will deliver four lectures at the Seminary, Oct. 26 and 27. Dr. Mackay will address the students both mornings during the Chapel period and the evening lectures, which will be open to the public. Dr. Mackay will speak on the subject "Jesus Christ and the Hispanic World."

All students who are interested in learning of the ministry of YOUNG LIFE are invited to an informal get-together the next two Wednesday evenings immediately after supper, 6-7 p.m. This is not a recruiting effort but rather an informative meeting on the work of Young Life. Room 304, Oct. 11 and 18, 6-7 p.m. T.O.

THE FLAG FOOTBALL TEAMS will start their schedule Oct. 14 at 9:00 a.m. with Team A playing Team B (this is Married vs. Married). At 10:30, Stonewall I will play Stonewall II. For those who hesitated to come out last Saturday, we can only say, "WE NEED YOU." Take a little time out and have some 'bumping' good fun. B.B.& T.O.

FLAG FOOTBALL RESULTS: Last Saturday the single students blasted their way to a scintillating victory over the married students 35-12 at Brookside Coliseum. Married students coach Bob Bard said after the game, "We lost." League play starts next Saturday at 9:00 a.m. Standouts for the single students were John Rose, Carl Stilwell, Don Reeverts, Greg Barnett, Jack Robinson and Terrence Olson. J.R.,C.S.,D.R.,G.B.,T.O.

ALL FULLER PICNIC: The annual All Fuller Picnic will be held on Oct. 21, 1961 at Brookside Park, Section "C." Starting at 2:30 there will be sports, food, & fun for (OVER) the entire family (wives, husbands, children, single guys, dates, faculty, etc.). Costs are 50¢ per person, 30¢ for children, and boarding students free. This is a great opportunity to meet the rest of the Fuller student body informally. R.B.W.

SECOND ANNUAL REFORMATION FESTIVAL Sunday, Oct. 29, 7 p.m., in Claremont Lutheran Church, Claremont. Rev. Dr. Jaroslav Pelikan, Jr., noted theologian, author of "The Riddle of Roman Catholicism," and co-author of the 55-volume "Luther's Works," will present the message entitled "Saints of the Reformation." Following the service an informal session will be open to both laymen and clergy for discussion.

FIELD WORK OPPORTUNITIES. If you are in need of field work, please come to the Field Work Office, Room 224. There are still a number of opportunities, especially for those who can serve as choir directors. H.K.

TEACHING DEAF CHILDREN. If you know of anyone who has had some experience in teaching deaf children, please see me. There is an opportunity to teach deaf children in Sunday school. H. Kawahara.

MR. CHARLES HUMMEL, Assistant General Director of Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, will be speaking in Chapel on Wednesday, Oct. 11, and will be available for conferences with students later that day. A sign-up sheet will be at the Receptionist's desk. R.T.
