Fuller Theological Seminary
The Good Neighbor Program

The Good Neighbor program offers an opportunity to express and experience Christ's love with international brothers and sisters here at Fuller. It gives you an opportunity to pray with, minister to, and introduce an international student to the American Culture. It also enables you to learn about different cultures, different languages, different peoples, and different countries without having to travel outside the United States. In no way are you making a financial commitment when you become a Good Neighbor. If you would like to know more about the Good Neighbor program, please pick up a brochure from the ISS office, and/or contact the Good Neighbor program coordinator, Gerry Day, at (213)257-2904.

Pre-Sem Backpacking Trip

There's still a spot for you to come on Fuller's exciting and very high quality mountaintop experience to the Sierra Nevada/Yosemite Region. The trip is September 4-13 and is open to new and returning students. Elective credit is available. Contact the OCC office at 584-5322 for further questions or info soon.
GROUP THERAPY OPPORTUNITIES
Sponsored by
Fuller Psychological and Family Services

The Premarital Program: Much time and money is spent preparing for the wedding. Why not spend a little on the relationship? FPFS is offering a short-term premarital program which will focus on using personality assessment tools. These provide a couple with valuable feedback through which they can gain a deeper understanding into themselves and their partners. The program consists of 6 sessions (and one complimentary follow-up session). It can be adapted to fulfill premarital requirements of particular churches.

For registration or more information on any of these groups, please contact Terry of Fuller Psychological and Family Services at (818)584-5555.

The Marital Tune-Up: We service our cars in order to keep them running efficiently. Why not have your marriage tune-up to keep it running efficiently as well? We are offering a marital enhancement program of 6 sessions. Personality assessment tools will provide insights into values, interests, personality and relational styles, and family background. The tune-up provides practical suggestions for improving their relationship as well as a deeper understanding into themselves and their partners.

Couples’ Therapy Group: Group therapy can be a helpful way for couples to work on improving their relationships. It provides a chance to hear how others resolve problems and receive input about their relationships from others under the supervision of a therapist. FPFS sponsors ongoing group therapy for couples at an affordable fee and convenient times.

Divorce Recovery: Even with the best effort, sometimes marriages do not work out. Divorce can be a time of great pain and also a time of personal growth. Group therapy can be an effective way to face the pain and enhance the personal growth as you hear how others have resolved problems and get input about your situation under the direction of a therapist. Ongoing divorce recovery groups at convenient times and with affordable fees are sponsored by FPFS.

Alcohol and Substance Abuse Group: The misuse of alcohol and other substances can bring a great deal of pain into a person’s life and family. This therapy group addresses the needs and difficulties particular to the person who has been caught in the destructive cycle of alcohol or substance abuse. This is not an AA group, but would compliment it in a person’s recovery.
