A FIRST AID KIT is now at the Reception Desk in case of need.

THE MISSIONARIES attending our conference will be available 10:45 to 12:45 a.m. for personal consultations concerning mission boards, policies and practices, or requirements for candidates. Sign the schedule at the front desk for appointments.

CHAPEL SEATING—Please be sure to observe the new Chapel seating chart posted on the bulletin board. Sit in the correct place to be counted present and also to be fair to others by leaving their places vacant for them to occupy.

SUMTER WORK—The Marine Medical Mission needs possible missionary candidates to do summer work with them in Alaska. This is not a vacation or a pleasure cruise and is purely a mission project attended by much hard work. The need is for married couples as well as single men and women who are experienced in personal work, dealing with boys and girls and leading them to Christ. They would also like to have musicians if possible and those who are able to direct recreational activities. The program takes two months, usually from July 1 to September 1. If there are any students who are interested, see me at the earliest possible date. Their plans must be made soon for the summer months. —D.F. Cox MIDDLES AND SENIORS—The funeral of Oscar Segerkrantz (formerly the barber located CHAPEL SCHEDULE: Tuesday—John McIntosh of Wycliffe Bible Translators.

Wednesday—Austin Paul of the Africa Inland Mission.
