AN OPPORTUNITY FOR SERVICE IN PASADENA. The director of the Pasadena Boys' Club, Charles Bradford, will meet with all interested in helping underprivileged young people in our area. Kinds of service: tutoring (six needed now), craft instructors (many different types), on-call reserve helpers and more. The time spent may be small but the opportunity for significant help can be great. Mr. Bradford will meet with all interested students in the lounge after chapel on Wednesday. Steve Smith, 794-3995.

SENIORS! The Rev. Lloyd Gaut, minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Richmond, California, will be on campus on Thursday, Jan. 20, to interview for a Minister to Youth. Appointments should be made through Mrs. Bush's office in Slessor Hall. BB

Dr. Hendrikus Berkhof of Leyden University has sent several descriptive folders on a summer program on Developments in Church and Theology in the Netherlands, which Fuller students might be interested in attending. This will also give opportunity to attend sessions of the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches meeting in Utrecht from August 13 to 23. Folders are available in Dean Fuller's office.
