REMINDER! The Fuller Student Fund needs your help! We need to raise $400.00 to complete the support for our current student interns, Reid Trulson in Africa and Cal and Linda Swanson in the Virgin Islands. We also have two applicants seeking to intern next year. Please give something to help. Leave contributions with Kathy at the reception desk or in the Fuller Fund mail box. MB
Dear Uncle Screwtape:

I am glad to report that some progress is being made here in the chapel situation. I have not told you before that participation in worship of the Enemy had been doing fairly well. I have given this some concerted attention, and I'm glad to report a real improvement in keeping people away from this repeated caucus against us. I must admit some help in the "increased pressure" that seems to appear annually about this time, and frankly, I have been amazed and delighted at some of the reasons I am hearing for cooperation with us in this absence campaign. These (pardon the expression) "divinity" students are quite bright, really. Any suggestions to further weaken this event will be most welcome. I have about given up on some of the older missions students. My feeling is that they have been long enough in campaigns against us in other places that they detect not only their resources in this chapel bit, but our frustration with any success in it. Oh well, what the heaven, I say.

FSAA INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL RESULTS—4th week:

The Blue Team won a game! Led by the scoring of Jay Passavant and Dave Smith, the Blues nipped the Gold Team 31-25. Chuck Van Engen was high scorer for the Gold Team. In the second game a controversial foul gave the Red Team a win over the Green Team 43-42 in overtime. Even scoring by the Red Team has now put them in first place. Ron Baltrusis and Doug Stevens once again paced the Greens, both scoring in double figures. P. Jones
