Biography

The second son of the Rev. Fred DeWeerd, Methodist missionary and pastor, James A. DeWeerd (1916-1972) was a pastor, teacher, college president and evangelist. He was editor of The Christian Witness and Advocate of Bible Holiness in 1948, served as the President of Kletzing College from 1949 until 1951 and then as a Wesleyan Methodist pastor in Gaston and then Fairmont, Indiana, where he also taught high school English. He was married to Mildred Geyer DeWeerd whose brother Robert was a missionary in Bolivia. He was a longtime pastor-administrator of Cadle Tabernacle in Indianapolis and a pioneering radio and television preacher whose sermons were carried on a number of mid-western radio and television stations. In Indianapolis he also edited The Christian Witness. James DeWeerd was a mentor of James Dean, and played crucial support roles in Dean's artistic development.

Scope and Content

The DeWeerd collection contains papers from his administrative positions, church posts, correspondence, memorabilia, and photographs.

Arrangement

The collection is organized into 6 boxes consisting of 3 series as follows:

Series I: Church Material

This series includes sermon preparation materials and notes, announcements and promotional material for events, as well as a leaflet on the Temperance movement. It also includes sheet music and original compositions.

Series II: Correspondence

This includes a large folder of correspondence concerning G.A. McLaughlin. The Christian Witness solicited memories of McLaughlin from their readers and had many responses. Some are addressed to Elmer L. Kletzing, some to the Witness. There are also 2 letters from Kletzing to the widow McLaughlin. Other important correspondence is an exchange between DeWeerd and Taylor University about his honorary doctorate.

Series III: Memorabilia, Photos, and Miscellaneous Material

- A. Memorabilia, including a Souvenir Program of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of Gaston.
- B. Photos of the DeWeerd family and Robert Raine Geyer family.
- C. Miscellaneous, including a missions notebook/scrapbook c. 1950, Yearbook, guest book from the Inauguration of DeWeerd as President of Kletzing College.
