"CHAPEL: A FULLER SERVICE OF WORSHIP"
10:00 A.M.

MONDAY
February 8
Prayer and Fellowship Groups
(See list for time and location of individual groups.)

TUESDAY
February 9
Payton 101. Prayer and Praise. Faculty
Prayer in the Geneva Room. The Seoul Seminary
Singers will be part of our praises and then give a concert at 10:30 a.m.

WEDNESDAY
February 10
Community Worship. Presbyterian Sanctuary.
Our preacher will be our Pastor-in-Residence,
Rev. Wayne Rogers, Campus Pastor from the University of Illinois. Offices closed and you are encouraged to worship together.

THURSDAY
February 11
Morning Worship. Payton 101. Homily by Dr. Ralph Martin, Professor of Psalm 42.

MONDAY PRAYER AND FELLOWSHIP GROUPS
(10:00 a.m. unless noted otherwise)
-African Prayer Group: Presbyterian Church, Room 102
-American Baptist: Slessor, Room 205
-Assemblies of God: Dr. Spittler's office, Slessor
-Episcopal: Payton 302
-Human Concerns: Catalyst, 2nd floor
-IVCF: 90 N. Oakland, Room 205
-Korean Prayer Fellowship: Payton 303
-Lutherans: Student Services 204 (2nd floor, Admissions Building)
-Mission Concerns Prayer Group: Library 203
-Nederlandse Bidstond: Location will be announced
-Presbyterian: Payton 301
-Reformed/Christian Reformed: Rear of Refectory - 12 noon
-United Methodist: Dr. Gilliland's office

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS
-American Baptist: Seniors and spouses are invited to a dinner at The Fox's Restaurant as guests of Terry Burch, Regional Director of the Ministers and Missionaries Benefit Board of the ABC to discuss placement. RSVP to Gaynia Menninger in Dean Meye's office.
-Christian and Missionary Alliance: Mr. Philip Skellie, Personnel Secretary of the CMA in the USA will be on campus Feb. 9. If you are interested in ministry worldwide or in the USA, sign up for an interview time in the Placement Office.
-Presbyterian Students: Bishop Gaylerd Falde of the South Pacific District will meet with us
Sunday, Feb. 8 at 10 a.m. in Room 204, Student Services Building.
-Presbyterian:
The Monday morning meeting will be spent in preparation for the Moderator's visit. Jack Rogers will lead a discussion on the office of Moderator and outline the visit of Bob Davidson.

-Seniors: The Rev. Louise Hollert, Director of Christian Education at First Presbyterian Church, Hayward, CA is on campus and available to interview seniors interested in a Youth Pastor position at that church. Sign up for an interview time in the Placement Office.

-United Methodist:
-Rudolf Trusheim and Leroy Moore, District Superintendents in the Iowa Conference will be the guests at the Monday morning meeting.
-The Rev. Dale C. Harris, District Superintendent of the Oregon-Idaho Conference will be here on Feb. 19 to interview interested students. Sign up in the Placement Office.
-Mr. Hamilton, District Superintendent of the California-Nevada Conference will be on campus Feb. 16 to meet with students from this district and others who are interested. Bring a bag lunch and meet him in the Placement Office at noon on Tuesday, Feb. 16. If you wish to have an interview with him, arrange that during the lunch time.

NON-DENOMINATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES
-Chaplain Sam Chetti, USC Campus, will be on campus to interview interested women students for an associate chaplaincy position, Feb. 16 and 17. Sign up in the Field Ed. office.
-There are funds available for Peace and Poverty related summer internships through the Human Concerns Committee. One example of such an opportunity is the Pasadena NW Community Internship. For further info, contact Al Heystek, Box 533.
-Opportunities in the Military Chaplaincy - At 10 a.m. on Friday, Feb. 19, in Payton 303, Russ Spittler (who is a Naval Reserve chaplain) will outline opportunities and requirements for ministry as a military chaplain. Literature will be available.
-Mr. Rod King of the Mennonite Central Committee will be here on Feb. 9 to meet with interested students. Please come to the Placement Office to sign up. The Mennonite Central Committee does relief and development work worldwide.
-Mr. Steve Barker and Bill Ditewig of IVCF will be here on Feb. 8 to interview for an InterVarsity Christian Fellowship staff position. They are recruiting on the national scale - this staff minister position could be for anywhere in the USA. Sign up in Placement Office.

SEMINARS/WORKSHOPS/LECTURES
-Managing Stress - a 2-session seminar taught by Dr. Arch Hart of the Graduate School of Psychology. The seminar will help you test your own stress level, isolate tension-causing factors, learn techniques for releasing tension and discover a biblical approach to managing stress. This can count for MFM program hours. Contact x. 3404 for more info.
-Integration event: Martin and Deidre Bobgan, authors of The Psychological Way/The Spiritual Way, will speak on the topic "Are Christianity and Psychotherapy Possible?" Wed., Feb. 10 at noon in Payton 101A.
-Note a scheduling change - Encountering Depression in Ministry: Spiritual and Psychological Dimensions will be held Tuesday, Feb. 23, 7:30-9 p.m. in P101A. All students and members of the community are invited to attend this evening seminar sponsored by the Office of Christian Community. Speakers include: Dr. Arch Hart (School of Psychology), Rev. Darrell Johnson (St. John's Presbyterian Church in LA) and Connie Doran (S.A.F.E. Program, Fuller).
-Seminar on Aging: 25% of American church congregations are over the age of 65. This course will help you prepare for this essential aspect of ministry. See the Academic Advising Office for details.

MEETINGS/DISCUSSIONS
-Psych students interested in working on new, creative ways to be more actively integrating spirituality with academic life - There will be a brown bag lunch Monday, Feb. 8 from 12-1 in the Geneva Room to begin some work on this topic. If you are interested but cannot attend, send a note to Laura Robinson, Box 1209.
-Family Pastoral Care and Counseling: The February meeting will be Tuesday, Feb. 16 at 7 p.m. in the Refectory.
- Prayer Meeting for the Unreached Peoples meets every Wednesday at noon in the SWM Conference Room behind Jean Barker's office. All are welcome to join us in praying for Muslim, Chinese, Tribal, and Hindu peoples.

- Crisis Counseling: Rev. Lloyd Workman, Director of the Help Line in LA will speak to the Human Concerns Committee on Monday, Feb. 8, at 10 a.m., on the second floor of the Catalyst. Opportunity for internship or Marriage and Family program hours.

- Ministry with the Aging will be the topic of Fran Becker at a brown bag lunch meeting sponsored by the CFD program. All students are welcome to attend. Thursday, Feb. 18, 11:30-1 p.m. in the Geneva Room. If you have a class, feel free to come when you can.

- Share a Vision: Lawrence Yoder will present "An Indonesian Church's Vision for Mission" on Wednesday, Feb. 10 from 12-12:50 in Payton 302. Bring a lunch.

- Pray for oppressed Christians in totalitarian countries on Tuesday at noon in the ASC meeting room (above the Catalyst). You can eat lunch while we pray. Sponsored by the Human Concerns Committee and World Christian Fellowship.

-  Fuller Wives in Action is sponsoring a pot luck and fellowship time on Saturday, Feb. 6 in the Catalyst. Call Ramona Taylor (795-7680) for more information.

- Fellowship for Creative Work - A few people in the community will be meeting together on the evening of Feb. 12 at 8 p.m. in the Catalyst for the purpose of beginning a group which will be able to support and encourage creative endeavors of various kinds - art, literature, music, etc. You are invited.

HEALTH CARE

- The Heartmobile will be on campus Feb. 23. The Heartmobile makes available several blood tests to determine heart risk factors and provides an extensive health review. It only takes 20 minutes. Sign up on the card in the packet of information in your box and send it to the Heartmobile address.

- Smog and Lung Damage: Ever wondered how much the smog is hurting your lungs and general health? Available now is a packet of information which includes what to do during the most common types of smog, a glossary on air pollution so you can understand the terms, and a booklet on your health and air pollution. These materials are from the American Lung Association. Request yours through Box 38.

MISCELLANEOUS

- A Program for Women in Ministry - Demythologizing Therapy: A program discussing women ministers as counselors, when and how to refer to a professional therapist, what the relationship between spiritual and psychological counseling is, how a minister and therapist can work as a team. All women students invited. Tuesday, Feb. 23, 7:30 p.m. in the Geneva Room. Questions to Libbie Patterson, x. 3837.

- Pat Gundry, author of Woman, Be Free and Heirs Together will be on campus Friday, March 5, speaking at 10 a.m. and noon. Save the date!

- Th.M./Ph.D. theology students who wish to serve as Graduate Assistants next year should have their applications in to the Graduate Office by Feb. 15.

-  Fuller Follies - to be held this year on Feb. 26th at 7 p.m. in the Pasadena Christian School. More details to follow.

- Commencement this year will be held on Saturday, June 12 at 3 p.m. Baccalaureate will be held at 10 a.m. on Friday, June 11. Complete information on announcements, regalia, child care and other details will be provided in March.

- How often have you wished that you or someone you knew had made a tape recording of "that great chapel sermon?" The FTS Media Services Department did record it. Chapel tapes, as well as many other special on-campus lectures, are available for purchase at the Media Services Office, basement 2 of the library, room 030, daily from 8-6. Also available are good quality blank cassette tapes for purchase and pre-recorded tapes for check-out.

- The Party-II has been moved back 1 week. Come to the Catalyst on Feb. 12 (Friday night) at 8 p.m. and be ready for an evening of tension releasing fun! Sponsored by the Student Activities Committee.
-Oasis fellowship - Join your fellow students for an hour of worship, sharing, and singing. In the Catalyst, each Sunday night from 8-9 p.m. More info - call Susan Dow, 449-4337.

-Don't miss out! The deadline for ordering Hermeneia commentaries and the Proclamation commentary set at 30% discount is Monday, Feb. 8. If you are unfamiliar with these commentaries, you'll find them on display in the Bookstore.

-New 1982 spring course: Howard and Jennifer Martin, Professors of Communication and Theater Arts at the University of Iowa will be offering a course entitled "Drama, Dance, and the Word" (MN 526) on Mondays 7-10 p.m. See the Academic Advising Office for details.

-If you are talented in creating sound effects and/or can fake a decent opera voice, please respond to Box 344. These particular talents are required for a Fuller Follies skit.

COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Congratulations to:

Enock and Zilla Drati on the birth of Jennifer, January 22, 1982.

Alan and Lynn Nyhus on the birth of Heidi Lynn, February 1, 1982.

---

TEXTBOOKS SPRING 82: On behalf of the students and Bookstore staff, a hearty thanks is expressed to the following professors, instructors, secretaries and T. A.'s for returning their textbook orders for the Spring Quarter by the January 29 deadline.

Anderson  Clinton  Kelly  Schaper  Vande Kemp
Arreguin  Daane  Kiefer  Shelton  Wagner
Barker  Demarest  Maldoon  Smedes  Waring
Becker, F.  Demarest  Maldoon  Smedes  Smith
Becker, W.  Fuller, P.  Martin, J.  Southard
Bradley  Gay  Morales  Spittler
Brewster  Gorman  Pannell  Stock
Brown, C.  Gorsuch  Pitt-Watson  Stoop
Brown, W.  Guernsey  Rankin  Straatmeyer
Chow  Hestenes  Rogers  Travis

Will those of you that did not appear on this week's list appear on the one next week?

---

MAKE NOMINATIONS FOR A.S.C. OFFICES NOW!

Elections for the positions of President, Vice-President, and Treasurer will be held by the All Seminary Council on February 23, 24, and 25. Nominations will be closed by Feb. 16. These are paid positions with responsibilities ranging from Trustee Committee involvement to policy setting for Fuller student activities. This could be the most significant thing you do during your time at Fuller. Nominate either yourself, or someone you think would be qualified, for one of the three positions listed above and return this form to: MARK BAKER, BOX 1188.

Person Nominated: ___________________________ Box: __________

For the Position: ____________________________

My Name (Optional): ________________________
NEW ARRIVALS AT THE BOOKSTORE include:

Frank E. Gaebelein (ed.), The Expositor's Bible Commentary, Vol. 12: Hebrews, James, 1 & 2 Peter, 1, 2 & 3 John, Jude, Revelation (Zondervan)—our Provost, Dr. Glenn W. Barker, contributes the commentary on the Johannine epistles in this latest volume in the new Zondervan commentary series.

Morris A. Inch and C. Hassell Bullock (ed.), The Literature and Meaning of Scripture (Baker)—Dr. Donald Hagner writes on "Interpreting the Epistle to the Hebrews" in this new volume of essays in biblical interpretation.

Biblical Studies
David L. Petersen, The Roles of Israel's Prophets, JSOTSup 17 (Sheffield)—a creative contribution from a sociological perspective dealing with the roles of the rō'eh, hāḇīḏ (hāḇīḏ), hōzeh and nāḇ̄ supervisor.

Martin Hengel, The Charismatic Leader and His Followers (Crossroad)—in the monograph which launched his university career, Hengel demonstrates the uniqueness of Jesus' relationship to his disciples in light of Jewish and Hellenistic parallels.

Robert H. Mounce, Themes from Romans (Gospel Light)—a Fuller alumnus who is now president of Whitworth College offers a commentary for the layperson, ideal for Bible study classes.

R. T. Kendall, Believing God: Studies on Faith in Hebrews 11 (Zondervan)—expository sermons on this significant biblical chapter.

John Bernard Orchard (ed.), A Synopsis of the Four Gospels, Arranged according to the Two-Gospel Hypothesis (Mercer University)—a synopsis of the English text designed to demonstrate the Griesbach hypothesis (Matthew-Luke-Mark) of literary relationships.

Albert Huck and Heinrich Greeven, Synopsis of the First Three Gospels, With the Addition of the Johannine Parallels (Mohr/Eerdmans)—a revision of the 9th edition (1936) of this standard synopsis of the Greek text, which incorporates the latest text-critical work and the Johannine parallels to the synoptic Gospels.

Church History
John Wesley (ed. F. Baker), The Works of John Wesley, Vol. 26: Letters II, 1740-1755 (Oxford)—insights into Wesley's personal life from 270 letters, many of which have been previously unpublished.

Eric J. Hobsbawm (ed.), The History of Marxism; Vol. 1: Marxism in Marx's Day (Indiana University)—the first volume of an encyclopedic history of Marxism, of special interest to those concerned with liberation theology.

Theology and Philosophy
Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Fiction from Prison: Gathering Up the Past (Fortress)—Bonhoeffer's own introduction to his Letters and Papers from Prison in the form of a play and a novel which include much autobiography.

Winfried Corduan, Handmaid to Theology: An Essay in Philosophical Prolegomena (Baker)—an evangelical theologian from Taylor University attempts to provide philosophical categories for theology which will be faithful to the Bible.

Hilary Putnam, Reason, Truth and History (Cambridge)—an attempt to break through the impasse of conventional dichotomies in philosophical thought by a fresh analysis of the most fundamental and persistent problems of philosophy.
Issues
Ronald A. Wells (ed.), The Wars of America: Christian Views (Eerdmans)—an analysis of eight major American wars from the revolution to Vietnam.
John A. Schiller (ed.), The American Poor (Augsburg)—Christian responses to this complex and troublesome issue.

Ministry
Arndt L. Halvorson, Authentic Preaching (Augsburg)—the professor of homiletics at Luther-Northwestern offers a text on the art of preaching.
Carolyn C. Brown, Developing Christian Education in the Smaller Church (Abingdon)—a helpful guide in the popular Griggs series.
Symbol Patterns: Ideas for Banners, Posters, Bulletin Boards (Augsburg)—contemporary symbol designs.

Spirituality
Donald Nicholl, Holiness (Seabury)—open to the insights of many traditions, the author presents holiness as the most human way to respond to life.
Hugh Prather, The Quiet Answer (Doubleday)—"a quiet answer is a reality that comes gently and always accompanies kindness and peace."
W. Robert McClelland, God Our Loving Enemy (Abingdon)—after a four-and-one-half year battle with spastic dysphonia—loss of voice—a pastor shares what he learned about God.
Victoria Booth Demarest, The Greatest Week in History (Abingdon)—meditations for Holy Week.

Missions
J. H. Bavinck, The Church between Temple and Mosque (Eerdmans)—a posthumous work of a highly esteemed missiologist illumines the right stance of Christians in dialogue with persons of other faiths.

Marriage and Family
David Atkinson, To Have and To Hold (Eerdmans)—attempting to overcome the prejudices of church tradition, the author develops a "covenant" view of marriage which allows for the possibility of divorce and remarriage.
Carolyn E. Phillips, Our Family Got a Stepparent (Gospel Light)—a book to help children in making this traumatic adjustment.
Joyce Huggett, Two into One: Relating in Christian Marriage (InterVarsity)—a practical book on the marriage relationship.
Jill Briscoe, Fight for the Family: A Plan for Rebuilding the Family (Zondervan)—helps from the Book of Nehemiah.
Keith Korstjens, Not a Sometimes Love (Word)—how a marriage has survived for 26 years when the wife has been a quadraplegic.

Literature
Jared Lobdell, England and Always: Tolkien’s World of the Rings (Eerdmans)—insight into Tolkien’s fantasy from biographical details of his life.