CHAPEL SCHEDULE:
Tuesday  Dr. Robert K. Bower
Wednesday  Mr. H. J. Taylor, Chicago (Seminary trustee)
Thursday  Day of Prayer
Friday  FMF -- The Rev. Charles Tournay

The next Faculty-Senior Evening will be Friday, April 6, 7:30, at the home of Dr. Carlton Booth, 475 Cliff Drive, Pasadena. Senior students, wives and friends are invited, but the group will be limited to twenty. A sign-up sheet will be at the receptionist's desk Tuesday after chapel. Each couple will be asked to bring part of the refreshments. Look forward to an evening of relaxation and fellowship.

The construction company personnel have been given parking privileges in the area to the side and front of the 98 N. Oakland (Livingstone) dormitory. Please do not park in that area at any time until further notice. RDC

SENIORS: Please come in to be measured for caps and gowns for graduation THIS WEEK. Registrar's Office.

MIDDLES: All students who hope to graduate June, 1963, please check rule 24 of Handbook, and complete proper form immediately in Registrar's Office.

A supply of the PLAN BOOK (the handbook for Presbyterians) has arrived. Since the quantity is small, the sale of the books will be limited through Wednesday to those who requested them. On Thursday they will be made available to all others interested. With the price reduced to 75¢, Presbyterian students are encouraged to take prompt action on this offer. See Norm Culbertson and Ted Settle. CL

FTGASB62 (FULLER THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY ANNUAL SPRING BANQUET 1962, stupid) will be held on Saturday, April 28, at 7:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of Westminster Presbyterian Church. Reserved seat tickets go on sale after chapel this Wednesday, in the Lobby ($2.50 each). First come First! An all-musical evening is planned, featuring Dick Dissell (RCA Victor recording artist) and Joe Barclay (lyric tenor) and other top artists. Get in orbit with "Music of the Spheres." RBW

BLOOD PROGRAM. Last year Fuller students contributed 26 pints of blood to our blood bank and we released 25 pints. So far this year we have given 15 pints, and released 9 pints last week. We can be thankful for its availability! Some have inquired about donating blood for Dr. Archer. It will be possible for you to do so this afternoon and evening in Altadena; Tuesday, April 3, 3:00--7:30 p.m. Place: St. Marks Episcopal Church, 101¼ E. Altadena Drive, Altadena (Parish Hall). The next Pasadena opportunity will be April 23. The sign-up sheet is at the reception desk. RCT

EMPLOYMENT: Those interested in securing employment for this term may come to the Student Council room (rear of Dorm 190), 3--4:00 p.m., Monday--Friday. Also, check the employment bulletin board opposite the bookstore. CH

SUMMER EMPLOYMENT. From now through April 13, applications are being received by the Pasadena Dept. of Recreation for summer employment. Forms may be secured from the Recreation Dept., 1501 E.
