CLASSROOM CHANGES (Tuesday, 1:10 p.m.) Presbyterian Polity will meet in 302. Modern Hebrew in L204.

ALL SINGLE STUDENTS living in Seminary housing are requested to meet with Dr. Schaper in the Chapel on Monday, October 2, at 4:45 p.m. RNS

STUDENT COUNCIL will meet Wednesday, October 4 at 7 a.m. in Kreyssler Hall, 130 North Oakland. DT

The Chapel Committee in consultation with the Faculty is making some alternate plans for the DAY OF PRAYER, so the regular meeting of the second week (Oct. 5) has been postponed. Further announcements will be made. RNS

The Reverend Bob Snyder, representative of Presbyterian Ministers Fund (non-denominational), will host a coffee for all students immediately after Chapel on Thursday, October 5, in the Refectory.

Pictures have been taken of almost everyone in the Fuller community. Only a few people have failed to cooperate. Edd Breeden, for our seminary directory has done a marvelous job. Also, thanks to Multicolor of Hollywood. DT

The Library has now developed a “fast cataloging” technique whereby all newly received books are placed in the stacks within two or three days of their arrival. These books will all be kept together for about six months on shelves so marked, immediately to the right of the first level elevator exit. Feel free to go down and browse around. CRS

Any student interested in serving on the Library Committee, should contact David Toycen. This committee oversees and establishes library policies. Also, anyone who wishes to make suggestions about the library services and facilities should leave your note in Dr. Schoonhoven’s mail box. DT

THE SALT COMPANY singing group, will be appearing in concert on Sunday evening October 8, 1972 at 8:30 p.m. at Bel Air Presbyterian Church. Excellent evening of music, a great event for your church group. Church address is 16221 Mulholland Drive in West Los Angeles. Call Jeff Cotter at 788-4200 for more information. JC
REMINDER - October 8 is the last day to register to vote. If you would like to register you can do so at the Pasadena City Hall, located 2 blocks west of Fuller.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY to meet seminarians of other confessions and persuasions. The 2nd annual Seminarian's Inter-Faith Conference will bring together Protestants, Catholics, Jews, and this year, Buddhists, Moslems and Hindus, on November 12-14. The conference is held at the magnificent Grindling Hill Top Camp, under the auspices of the Wilshire Boulevard Temple, and all expenses are paid. At this point, only 10 may go from Fuller. If you are interested in this great experience, leave your name in Dr. Schaper's office. SA
