Have you ever wondered what life was like on an archaeological excavation? (Probably not!) Have you always wanted to take a trip to the Holy Land? (I doubt it!) Well, come anyway and see pictures on the Holy Land and the Dothan archaeological excavation. Learn how you can go to Palestine and study at the Near East School of Archaeology (where there are plenty of scholarships). Tuesday, 7:30 p.m., Room 304. Ward Gasque. P.S. Save next Tuesday for pictures on Asia Minor.

MR. CHARLES TROUTMAN, General Director of Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship in the U.S., will speak at the Seminary Monday evening, Oct. 22, in Room 301, on "The Church, the College Student and the Campus." This will be geared to the problem and solution as a whole, not to the IVCF position. Students and all others interested in this strategic area are invited. RCT

If your parents are or have been missionaries, your help is needed! Please see Marilyn Cathcart or put a note in her box—include your name and the type of school you attended from 7th grade through high school. Thank you. MC (over)
OPEN AIR EVANGELISM. The second of a series of three training seminars in open-air evangelism will be held this Wednesday, 3:00-4:00 p.m., Room 303. All interested students are invited, even though you may have missed the first seminar. Teams will be formed soon to hold open-air meetings in Los Angeles. NC

PRACTICAL EVANGELISM meeting next Tuesday, Oct. 23, following Chapel, in Dr. Booth's office. Plans for the Practical Evangelism Conference will be discussed. Open to all interested.
