PRACTICAL EVANGELISM Committee meeting, Tuesday, Oct. 23, immediately following Chapel in Dr. Booth’s office. All students interested in any phase of evangelism are invited to attend. Plans for the P.E. Conference will be discussed.

Mr. Ingalls, representative for the Presbyterian Ministers’ Fund, will be available in the Refectory from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 23 and 24. He will be glad to answer any questions you have on insurance for the seminary student and future minister.

THE OPINION deadline for all letters and manuscripts for the November issue is Thursday, October 25. All typed manuscripts are to be turned in to Box 77.

Mr. Daniel O’Brien of Wycliffe Bible Translators will show slides of the Mexican Amuzco tribe Thursday, Oct. 25, at 7:30 in Room 304. All are invited.

THE MUSLIM WORLD is the concern of the FMF prayer group which meets each Wednesday, following chapel, Room 303. Dr. Wilbur Smith will be sharing with us some of the insights he has gained from his trip through North Africa and the Middle East.

STUDENT LOYALTY CAMPAIGN results to date are encouraging, with a total of $4,000 in gifts and pledges, representing the participation of 190 students. We invite any students who now find it possible, to join us in this effort. For convenience in making payments, envelopes will be placed in boxes of all students each month.

DEFERRED PAYMENT due Friday, October 26.

OPEN AIR EVANGELISM. The last of the series of training seminars in open-air evangelism will be held Wednesday, 3:00-4:00 p.m., Room 303. All interested students are invited. Here is an opportunity to use your musical talent.

FOOTBALL RESULTS: Single - 19, Married - 0. Last game of season, Saturday, 9:00.

All linen service must be paid for this week. Special arrangements can be made. Leave payment in Box 195.

POLIO CLINIC. All students, and families, are urged to take advantage of the Sabin oral polio vaccine (Type I) clinics on Sunday, Oct. 28, at various locations throughout the city. Cost: 25¢ contribution.

REPUBLICANS interested in supporting the campaign, please see Betty Malcasian for further information.

WANTED—Students or students’ wives to assist with FMF publicity. Most of the work involves poster-making and layouts in which lettering is used. Supplies are furnished and only a few hours of labor is necessary each month. See E. Schiller or D. Bentley for details.

DORM STUDENTS. Need colorful, scenic views for your dorm walls. Stop at the switchboard and get your complimentary copies. Free map tacks, too. Married students are invited to share in this offer. (These pictures were given to the Seminary by Bert)
MIDDLE YEAR IN MISSIONS. A letter recently received from Dick Peace in Pietermaritzburg speaks enthusiastically of 100 Bible study leaders whom he has been training in the Inductive Method. "Within these hundred lies the potential to crack this city," says Dick. Pray for these leaders as they seek to start their own Bible study groups in their homes and among friends. Pray also for Dick as he goes to Uganda to negotiate for government permission for a Christian radio station. Dick is very grateful to FMF for enabling him to stay on in Africa these extra months. "A Journey Through Asia Minor." This summer Dr. Bastian Van Elderen, my wife and I spent three exciting weeks following the footsteps of St. Paul through Asia Minor—visiting all but three of the cities, in addition to the sites of the Seven Churches of Asia, etc., and photographing most of the important monuments in connection with these cities. You are invited to see the pictures on Tuesday, Oct. 23, 7:30, in Room 304. Ward Gasque.

Army blanket found at Seminary picnic. Owner please see Betty Malcasian.
