The son of John G. Payton, wrote concerning his father: "Never, in temple or cathedral, on mountain or in glen, can I hope to feel that the Lord God is more near, more visibly walking and talking with men, than under that humble cottage roof of thatch and oaken wattles. Though everything else in religion were by some unthinkable catastrophe to be swept out of memory, or blotted from my understanding, my soul would wander back to those early scenes, and shut itself up once again in that Sanctuary Closet, and, hearing still the echoes of those cries to God, would hurl back all doubt with the victorious appeal. 'He walked with God, why may not I?'"

Library Bulletin #7-8 - The library supply of the Fuller Library Bulletin #7-8 is completely exhausted. As we are constantly getting calls from other libraries for this issue we would appreciate it if any student, faculty, or staff member who has an extra copy around would donate it to the library.

Did You Make This Purchase? I am endeavoring to locate the student who may have purchased a used copy of "Jesus is Coming" by Blackstone from the Bookstore within the past ten days. The name of Frances Alabaster appears on the inside cover (rubber stamp). There is also a quotation from the Bible (Titus 2:13) and it is also autographed by the writer of the book. I will be glad to exchange a copy for it. This book was among a collection that Miss Alabaster recently gave the Library and she would like very much to have it returned to her. Thank you. Mr. Cox

PLACEMENT OPPORTUNITIES --

1. Have a letter from village missions whose headquarters is located in the state of Missouri. However, it operates in many states. Its purpose is to carry the Gospel to rural America. New churches are opened in rural areas after these fields are carefully surveyed. This organization could use any of our graduates who may be interested in this field of service. If you would be interested in having your name submitted, please see me at the earliest possible date. Bill Stockton '54 class is serving this organization in the state of Kansas. He tells us that there are many openings in this field. D. F. Cox

2. Also in the state of New York we are in communication with the American Mission for reopening closed churches. This organization is doing a splendid job and would be interested to be in touch with our graduates who may be interested.

3. Other opportunities: Christian Church in Los Angeles needs a pastor.
   Presbyterian church in Minnesota needs a pastor.
   Congregational Church in Las Vegas needs a pastor.
   An independent church in Palo Alto needs a youth director.
