"THE UNITED WAY" The student response to the Community Chest appeal has been so negligible as to give the impression that we here at Fuller are not concerned about this worthwhile undertaking. Recognizing that you have financial obligations to local churches--is there not something extra that you could give to the United Fund this year? I trust you will give this matter prayerful and sympathetic consideration. Dr. Cole. (Please leave donations at the receptionist's desk, or bring to Room 212.)

SABIN ORAL POLIO VACCINE TYPE 2 will be given the next two Sundays at the various clinics. Don't overlook this.

MUSLIM WORLD PRAYER GROUP. Dr. Francis Steele will be with us Wednesday, Nov. 28, 10:20 a.m., Room 303.

LAST CHANCE to claim lost and found articles at Betty's desk. Unclaimed articles will be auctioned off in front of the bookstore after chapel this Friday, Nov. 30.

ALL-FULLER INTERNATIONAL CHRISTMAS PARTY will feature the play, "Dust of the Road," Bob Bason at the piano, faculty participation, and members of the student body in various roles. For an evening of enjoyment be at the First Methodist Church this Friday evening at 7:30. Cost is only 75¢. There will be a prize given for the most original costume. RBW

A simple, unique, sophisticated Christmas card is now on sale in the bookstore.

THE OPINION. All articles and letters for the December issue must be submitted by Wednesday, Nov. 28.
