Biography

The Reverend Fred C. Kennedy was born in Houston, Texas in 1931. He earned his B.A. at Pasadena Nazarene College, now Point Loma College (1952-1956); a B.D. (1956-1959) and Th.M. (1966-1967 - cum laude) from San Francisco Theological Seminary; and a D. Min. in "Bible and Proclamation" from Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary (1976-1977). He published a book of his sermons prepared for his first congregation, Woodforest Presbyterian Church, Houston, Texas.

Dr. Kennedy and his first wife Eleanor founded Woodforest Presbyterian Church, Houston, Texas, in 1959. In 1966 they moved to Ceres, California so that Fred could work on his Th.M. at SFTS. There he pastored Harvest Presbyterian Church from January 1967 until 1969. From September 1969 until March 1974 he taught at Ceres High School. In April 1974 he was called to St. Stephen's Presbyterian Church in San Antonio, Texas where he pastored until 1977.

He served his Presbytery as chairperson for Evangelism and Enlistment, and Candidates Committee for the gospel ministry. He later served as chairperson for New Church Development and was a member of Synod's Christian Education Committee. He taught English at El Sereno Junior High School, Los Angeles, California from 1977 until his retirement.

He and his wife Eleanor had two children, Sylvia and Kirk. He was divorced from Eleanor in 1972 and remarried Elisabeth, who had 2 children, in 1973. Son Kirk lived with his mother Eleanor. Daughter Sylvia married Edward Enos and they had 2 children. Kirk graduated from Fuller Theological Seminary, School of Psychology in 1990. His dissertation is entitled "Gallup Poll on Religion: Normative Data for Intrinsic and Extrinsic Religiousness."

Scope and Content

The collection documents the education and career of Fred C. Kennedy. It is a summary record of the life of a Nazarene student who became a Presbyterian pastor and a Junior High teacher and the personal and cultural struggles he faced along the way. The collection includes syllabi, notes and papers from studies at Pasadena Nazarene College, San Francisco Theological Seminary and Austen Theological Presbyterian Seminary, of interest for research in the history of these schools, their denominations and their faculty members. Also included are 2 draft copies and 2 bound copies, of a book of his sermons prepared for his first congregation, Woodforest Presbyterian Church, Houston, Texas, entitled "Knowledge of God and of Ourselves." It also includes study materials in Church Development and Christian Education, both youth and adult, and many Presbyterian pamphlets and aides to ministers.

The correspondence file includes letters from his son Kirk and his daughter Sylvia. Files of clippings, letters and notes on cultural issues affecting the Church from the 1960's through the 1980's will be useful for research in the history of the American Church in this era. Dr. Kennedy's son Kirk graduated from Fuller Theological Seminary, School of Psychology in 1990. His dissertation is included in the collection as well.

Subjects:
