Biography

Charles H. Kraft (b.1932) is an American anthropologist, linguist, and Professor Emeritus of Anthropology and Intercultural Communication in the School of Intercultural Studies at Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, CA. Dr. Kraft earned his BA from Wheaton College, a BD from Ashland Theological Seminary, and a PhD from Hartford Seminary Foundation.

Dr. Kraft worked on the Fuller faculty from 1969 until 2011. He also served as a missionary in Northern Nigeria; a professor in African languages at Michigan State University and UCLA; and a part-time professor of anthropology at Biola University.

Kraft's early career focused on anthropology and communication. After he became involved with Fuller Seminary's "MC510: Signs and Wonders" course by John Wimber, Kraft experienced a shift in worldview and began publishing materials related to inner healing, spiritual warfare, and spiritual dynamics. His areas of expertise include Biblical Christianity and culture (including contextualization); communicating Biblical Christianity; anthropology and Christianity; cross-cultural Christian theology; spiritual warfare; and inner healing.
