9:40-10:30--Chapel message, "The Crisis in Urgency"
7:30 p.m. --Philothean Fellowship

Wednesday, Jan. 16
9:40-10:30--Chapel message, "The Crisis in Strategy"
6:30-7:30 p.m.--Seminary Prayer Meeting
8:00 p.m. --Married Students' Fellowship Hour

Thursday, Jan. 17
9:40-10:30--Chapel message, "The Crisis in Communication" (I)

Friday, Jan. 18
9:40-10:30--Chapel message, "The Crisis in Communication" (II)
7:30 p.m. --Closing Meeting, presenting African Enterprise Slides and Reports

In addition, there will be several dormitory discussions, as well as informal discussions in the Refectory following each chapel message.

MARRIED STUDENTS AND WIVES are invited to the Fellowship Hour with the Rev. Leighton Ford on Wednesday, 8:00--9:30 p.m., 456 Ford Place, Apt. 12. Light refreshments. LF

LATIN AMERICA PRAYER GROUP will meet Tuesday at 2:00 in Room 303. Pete Nelson will share with us the work being done in Central America through the "Evangelism in Depth" movement.

COMMITMENT CARDS for FMF Prayer Groups may be turned in at the "Tithe of Tithe" slot or given to a group leader any time this week. The leader needs your card to be able to inform you of time and place of meetings.

ALL INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS be sure to go to the Post Office during January to complete the information card for the Immigration Office. MA

SINGLE STUDENTS EATING IN REFECTORY: With the completion of the McAlister Library, the north and east doors in Payton Hall will not be opened Sunday mornings (except in inclement weather). Access to the Refectory for breakfast can be gained by going around to the west of Payton Hall or to the south of the Library. RDC

ALL STUDENTS please note that there are study tables and chairs distributed in the stack space of the library. These, along with the carrels, are for student use. We hope that the main Reading Room will be in use very shortly. HL

Any student interested in the scholarship available for a potential candidate with the Wycliffe Bible Translators, please give a memo to that effect to the secretary of the Scholarship Committee, Miss Loeding, in Room 212. RDC

Available in the Bookstore: Filmstrips and narration records produced by Dr. LaSer on Great Personalities of the Bible. Have you mentioned these items to the Audio-Visual Librarian of your church? Descriptive material available in the bookstore. Special prices to students and churches.

Students belonging to Dr. Fairweather's Prayer Group are invited to his home for an informal get-together on Monday, Jan. 21 at 8:30 p.m. Contact H. Milner or L. Hale for additional information. Dr. Fairweather's address is 2205 N. Mar Vista, Altadena.
Those who would like to make a gift to Norman Wether '51, in view of the loss of his home and church on Guam, are invited to do so promptly, that the funds may go forward. Checks should be made out to the Conservative Baptist Home Mission Society. Leave cash or checks with Betty at the desk or with H. Kawahara.

YEARBOOK PICTURES will be taken in the back of the Chapel on Wednesday, Jan. 23, 10:30-2:15. We would like your cooperation! The cost will be $1.50 for two prints (one for you, one for us). If anyone feels that he cannot afford this, just tell the editor, and the Student Council will pay for it. Anyone who does not have a picture taken will be charged for the yearbook when it is published in the spring, so you are ahead to cooperate with us now. Pictures of Seniors will also be used in the graduation brochure distributed by the Public Relations Office. Yes, there will be a new photographer this year! --Joel Stolte

TRACT OF THE WEEK. "How the Lord Leads," by A. W. Tozer. Have you ever thought on the place of common sense at the point of decision in the Christian life? Dr. Tozer, author of The Pursuit of God and editor of The Alliance Weekly, has something that may be new to your thinking on this crucial matter of finding God's will for your life. Visit the Seminary tract display. --JW
