TRACT OF THE WEEK: "Soul Nourishment First"—from the autobiography of George Muller. This giant of the faith gives us a glimpse into some of his insights on the place of the Scriptures and prayer in the "Quiet Time." See tract display. JW

OPEN AIR EVANGELISM meetings are conducted by our Fuller team every Saturday night in downtown Los Angeles. If interested in either observing or having a part in this ministry, you are invited to go with the team. We meet in front of the Seminary at 6:00 for prayer, and leave at 6:30. This Saturday there will be a training session at Clifton's following the service, on the subject, "Giving Your Testimony in the Open Air." A training seminar will also be held Wed., Feb. 6, 3:00, in Room 302, directed by Don Avigliano, Los Angeles Director of Open Air Campaigners, on "Preaching in the Open Air" for all who are interested. NC

MINISTERS' DINNER. The annual Ministers' Dinner and Seminar is set for Monday, Feb. 25, 6:00 p.m. Eric Fife, Arthur Glasser and a panel of ministers will discuss strategy for missions. Area ministers will be the guests of Fuller and Inter-Varsity. If you know of ministers who should be better acquainted with the aims and objectives of Fuller, drop names in my box and invitations will be sent. HK
CROWN CITY CRUSADE. Students are urged to support and pray for the Crown City Crusade with the Rev. Joseph Blinco, Associate Evangelist of the Billy Graham Team, Feb. 21-24. Meetings will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday through Saturday at the Lake Avenue Congregational Church, with a closing rally at the Pasadena (Nazarene) College Auditorium, Howard and Bressee, Sunday, 3:00 p.m. The Crusade is sponsored by the Pasadena Association of Evangelicals.

ATHLETICS. On Monday, Jan. 28, the Fuller Furries hosted the Talbot Terriers in hardwood combat in both volleyball and basketball at the First Congregational Church, Pasadena. The Furries defeated the Talboteers 72-56 in basketball, and won the first two of a three-game series in volleyball, for a victory in this department also. At the completion of the first round of the Inter-Seminary League, the Furries are undefeated in volleyball and basketball.

RAFER JOHNSON will tell of the "People-to-People Movement Around the World" at a community meeting, Feb. 8, 7:30 p.m., at the First Methodist Church of Pasadena. A well-known athlete, Mr. Johnson is organizing and directing a program to develop friendship and understanding between American and foreign students. A social hour will follow.
