FULLER FOLLIES*FULLER FOLLIES*FULLER FOLLIES*FULLER FOLLIES*FULLER FOLLIES*

Some of you may be reading this SEMI (FULLER FOLLIES) and have a strange compulsion to do something in the Fuller Follies. We, here at the stunning ASC Office (FULLER FOLLIES), must deny all responsibility for any subliminal messages that you may be creating or reading between the lines (FULLER FOLLIES). It is known that the FULLER FOLLIES is THE single most prestigious event of the whole year (FULLER FOLLIES), and that it may bolster your self-image beyond your own imagination (FULLER FOLLIES) to be involved in such an event. However, we would not want to influence you one way or the other (FULLER FOLLIES). We hope that you are able to make a rational and conscious (HA!) decision about your involvement. Thank you for your most thoughtful consideration (FULLER FOLLIES) and we can sign you up anytime at the ASC OFFICE! (Oh, an afterthought...sort of like an afterdinner mint but not really, Fuller Follies will be held on February 26th for two showings at 5:30 pm and 8:00 pm...We know you won’t miss it!....FULLER FOLLIES!)

African American History Month: The Contribution of African American Women

Wednesday’s Chapel will honor the contribution of African American women for African American History Month with a sermon delivered by Fuller student, Rev. Debra Washington.

Rev. Debra Washington is Intern Director of young Adult Ministries at Scott United Methodist Church, an SOT Academic Advisor, as well as a third-year MDiv student. She is one of the first two students to earn an MA Theology degree from Fuller with a concentration in Christian Higher Education. Earlier this month she became the first female minister to assist in the Sacrament of Baptism at Victory Bible Church of Pasadena. The ministry God has given through Rev. Washington makes simple, yet profound contributions to the quality of life of those around her. She teaches from experience as well as revelation, attempting to create an environment for wellness and one that motivates others to reach beyond imposed boundaries toward fuller spiritual development. She is the author of Book 1 in the series, “Remember Me? Novelettes for Christians Who Are Incurable Romantics”.

Ian and Carolee Loring, Missionaries to Albania
Hi, this is Dan your co-dependent mailman, back again this week to tell you about a really phenomenal place I spotted in Glendale. It happened one night while ministering to a nomadic tribe of the Krishna sect. Needless to say, I had a great dinner, learned to play the tambourine and helped to form a new group which now calls themselves “Krishnas for Christ.” Of course my friends couldn’t join me due to the high karma content of the food.

I must tell you that my absence from the SEMI was due to a gastric disorder (a hernia to be exact). My diet during the last few weeks has consisted of dull food, barium milkshakes and tagamet.

Let me proudly tell you of the latest pearl I’ve found in this tropical paradise that we call Los Angeles. Zankou Chicken, located at 1415 E. Colorado Blvd in the city of Glendale. This fast food restaurant features some of the best cluck-monster (chicken) that this postman has ever had. My favorite dish here is the chicken Shawerma Plate, which costs $6 including tax. It features mouth-watering chicken slices, two hot pita breads (served with a delicious garlic-butter sauce), sesame sauce, Hommus (mashed garbanzo beans) and lettuce and tomatoes.

My brain goes into Id mode when eating at this place. If any of you come here and see me, try not to distract me or you could cause me severe psychological damage. I have to mention that not only is the chicken good, but the Falafel is awesome too! Falafel is mashed garbanzo beans that have been fried golden brown. Zankou makes an excellent sandwich out of these. The service is always consistent and fast. If you’re in the mood for something different and delicious, head on over to Zankou Chicken in Glendale. The Colonel needs a rest.

"My brain goes into Id mode when eating at this place." - Dan
