Next Tuesday in Chapel: Dr. Gleason L. Archer

ALL STUDENTS are encouraged to attend Chapel on Wednesday to hear from our representatives, Roger Erickson and Don Cummings, who are leaving for Midder-Missions internships. Dr. Roddy will close the service with a brief message.

SENIORS planning to attend the Faculty-Senior Dinner on June 7, 6:45 p.m., please indicate this by signing the sheet at the front desk as soon as possible. DC

ALL-SEMINARY PRAYER MEETING. A number of students have been meeting each morning, Tuesday--Friday, at 7:30, in the library chapel. We are praying principally for the Seminary, and that we all may lay our lives open to God. Everyone is invited.

DEFERRED PAYMENT due Friday, May 24.

Wednesday in Chapel we will be apprized of the financial situation of our Fuller Missions program, and given opportunity to pledge over the summer months. OH

The Reading Room will be open Saturday afternoons by appointment. See Miss Allen before Friday afternoon. CBA

Now that the artist's curtain has been removed from the Reading Room, will each student please replace the books he takes from the shelves so the next person may find them quickly. CBA

ALL STUDENTS. Please leave summer forwarding addresses with the receptionist before leaving the area.

Notices have been sent to all students having outstanding yearbook picture bills. Many have not replied. I would appreciate immediate settlement. J. Stolte

REWARD: Notes or a recording of Leighton Ford's chapel message on Wednesday, Jan. 16, and the evening discussion of January 17, on giving invitations, are urgently needed to complete the publication of the messages of the 1963 Evangelism Conference. Contact Dick Vesperman, Dorm 200 or Sy 3-9490.

Let's face facts! What can be done for Christ in Europe? Did Communism eradicate Christ in Helsinki? Is the Great Commission a thing of the past? Joe Copeland of the Pocket Testament League will seek to answer these questions on Thursday at 2:00 p.m. in the Chapel. You cannot afford to miss this meeting. RM

INTERNSHIP. A Southern Presbyterian church in New Orleans is looking for a student with two years of seminary to intern for one year commencing this summer. The church is located in the center of the city and seeks to minister in an extremely cosmopolitan context. The pastor is open to experimental approaches. This is a unique opportunity to gain experience in inner-city work. If interested, see H. Kawahara.

TENNIS. Those interested in tennis tournament, please meet with D. McNamara in chapel Tuesday following chapel service.

On Friday, May 24, on NBC television (Channel 4) Dr. Carl F. H. Henry will participate in a panel discussion, "How the Church Should Engage in Social Action." See local papers for time of program.
