FULLER IN SOCIETY HELPING socially relevant evangelism— not just social action and not just preaching Jesus but both together. Help work out details of overall philosophy and specific ministries here in Pasadena. THURSDAYS 4:45 p.m. ROOM 304. DS

Dr. Ladd's students have been trying to read the "Expository Times," v. 59-60 since last week, but someone has purloined it from the Library. Brothers in Christ do not steal from each other. Please return to the overnight book drop. RS

BIKE RACKS are now up behind Slessor and behind Dorm 150. RT

ATTENTION BOOKLOVERS! The Bookstore is now enforcing a long forgotten policy. Books that have been special ordered will be held for only two weeks. They will then join their fellows on the general stacks. We will certainly yeasay your cooperation. Thanks. The Managers. RMC

ATTENTION MEN: The YMCA is no longer issuing locks to Fuller students. Bring your own lock to the Y. RRM
SWM WOMEN: Set aside Nov. 5 for our next meeting. It will be held at Mary Jane Sandhal's, 1619 Las Lunas, Pasadena, at 7:30 p.m. Doris Wagner will speak on "Culture Shock." You can prepare for the Dec. 3 meeting by purchasing Jeanne Lockerbie's book, Bangladesh, now on sale for $1.25 in the SWM Common Room. Miss Lockerbie will speak on her experiences and book. Plan now to attend both meetings! Any women interested are welcome. BD
