CHAPEL

Tuesday
Inter-Varsity film, "Lord, Lord." Multi-media presentation from the I-V group that gave us 2100. This is a challenge and help for Christians rather than just an evangelistic instrument. It will be shown in lower auditorium of the Congregational Church. (Walnut Street doors)

Wednesday
Dr. Glenn Barker, Dean of the School of Theology. Leader, Vern Bauerle.

Thursday
The Reverend Ed Smith, the new pastor of the Brown Memorial Methodist Church in Pasadena, and a capable spokesman for the Black Christian community. Leader, Dennis Sato.

Friday
Faculty Dialogue. A presentation by the Faculty of the School of World Mission of some of their present concerns with opportunity for questions.

There's still time to take advantage of the Women's Institute this Fall. On Thursday, Ms. Daisy "Siegel of the American Feminists Psychological Association will be speaking on the topic, "Helping Children Cope With Their Sexuality In A Uni-Sex World." The cost for the remaining sessions is only $3.50. Come join other Fuller women and wives in the Geneva Room from 7:30-9:1 p.m. on Thursdays. RB

SENIOR CONGREGATIONAL STUDENTS. Assistant pastor position available in Southern California 4C's church. Interested seniors please see Glory Hees in the Placement Office. GH

Two internships available for next year; one at a Presbyterian Church in Spokane, Washington; the other United Church of Christ in Hawaii. The pastor from the church in Hawaii will be in the area on December 26 to talk with any students interested. Please sign up for either opportunity through Glory Hees, Placement Office. GH

BOOKSTORE SALE - November 12-16, 30% discount on full discount books. CASH SALES only. MC

ATTENTION BOOKLOVERS! The Bookstore is now enforcing a long forgotten policy. Books that have been special ordered will be held for only two weeks. Then they will join their fellows on the general stacks. We appreciate your cooperation. The MANAGERS. RMC

"Hot reserves for cool patrons—In response to various requests from students for guaranteed access to reserve books, the Library asks you to tell us promptly of titles you know will be in great demand. We will place these behind the circulation desk and charge them out instead of leaving them on the open shelves. The Faculty are asked to assist us in this. Speak now or else hereafter forever hold your peace!" RS

Are you a photographer? An artist? A designer? A layout man or woman? If you are interested and experienced in any area of graphic arts, stop by the Development Office to see Marge Carlson. There is frequent need for free lance help in these areas of publications. Remuneration included. MC
Do you have typing skills? The School of Theology is gathering information regarding the clerical and typing resources available among the students and the student wives. If you have typing skills and enjoy copy typing, typing of reports, and perhaps some dictaphone work, we might have some work for you. If you can work on projects at home, or on campus, part-time or full time, please contact Mr. Wright in the Dean's Office. WCW

ALL THEOLOGY AND PSYCHOLOGY STUDENTS: We want to send information about the Seminary to your parents. If you prefer that your parents NOT be added to the mailing list, please contact Dolores Greco in the Development Office (Ext. 160 or 156). If we do not hear from you, your parents will be added to the general mailing list, which includes occasional financial appeals. RT

"You can trust your car to the man who wears the star...but in the Library pick your man careful! Reference questions get the fastest replies as follows: ---books: Do we own it? Look in the card catalog. Buff slips, ask Marcie Baillie, order department. Is it charged out? Ask the circulation clerk. Is it on reserve? Look on your syllabus or in folder kept at desk. ---research problems: Put the brain in gear, make question as pointed and definite as possible, look in subject catalog, and finally ask Mrs. Jewett, reference librarian. ---thesis and term paper writing: consult thesis sheet from your mentor or at desk. Very hard problems, ask Mr. Scoon, Librarian. ---lost sheep department: rest rooms are upstairs, telephone is in garth, we will not page patrons, Xerox machine is subject to dyspepsia, and the switchboard knows classroom assignments. Our 619 student enrollment makes it most difficult for our circulation clerks to answer unnecessary questions. Please help us serve more for minimum cost." RS
