WELCOME WEEK. It has come to the attention of the Student Council that there are a number of anonymous people trudging the halls of Fuller. Therefore, to facilitate the manifestation of the basically extroverted nature of the student body, all members of the Fuller Family are requested to adorn themselves with name tags. Wednesday through Saturday of THIS WEEK, Welcome Week. (We are cognizant of the probability that you are anxious to let people know who you are anyway.) Please pick up your name tag at the front desk Wednesday morning. We don't want no more of them there incognito types. DA (for Student Council)

JUNIORS, MIDDLES, SENIORS. You are invited to the first meeting of the Practical Evangelism Committee (P.E.) on Tuesday, October 6, at 8:00 p.m. at Slesser Lounge. Suggestions for the literature rack, the winter P.E. Conference, and outreaches in evangelism will be discussed. ME

ATTENTION, FULLER STUDENT FUND SOLICITORS: All who have been asked to be contacts in the Fuller Student Fund Drive will meet in Room 205 in the Library on Friday, October 9, immediately after chapel. PSH

CHRISTMAS POST OFFICE EMPLOYMENT. If interested, please register with Ron Ching at following hours: Tuesday, Oct. 6, in Refectory after chapel, or in Student Council office (Dorm 190) 2:15-3:15 p.m., and Wednesday, Oct. 7, Student Council office, 2:15-3:15. Applicants must be United States citizens and residents of Pasadena (if you live in other areas, Seminary address may be used). All applications must be in by Wednesday, Oct. 7, 3:15 p.m. RC

LIBRARY CARRELS. Since there are not enough carrels for all students, thesis writers have first choice. Too many Juniors and Middlers have reserved carrels; so we are asking that you share with a friend. Please post a schedule on the carrel, and thus allow others to use it when you are away. MF
WANTED! Student volunteer(s) to attend to the raising and lowering of the American flag each day. If this assignment interests you, please put a note in my box.

R. D. Curley.

Denominational group leaders on campus, please contact Don Wright. If your denomination does not have a leader, please elect and then see Don.

FULLER FAMILY PICNIC. Yes, the time has come for you to forsake the books. The Fuller Family Picnic is this Saturday, Oct. 10, 1:00--7:00 p.m. at Brookside Park. Bring wives (one per student) and children. Lots of fun--football, baseball, volleyball and goofy contests which will not be enumerated here. Supper at 5:00. Free food for those with meal tickets (i.e. single students--who deserve some consolation!) 85¢ for those without meal tickets; 40¢ for children. No evening meal served at Refectory. Don't miss it. Those without meal tickets must sign up at the front desk by Friday. Middler Class.

Mr. Fletcher Smith, local head of the N.A.A.C.P. has graciously invited any members of the Fuller family who would like to learn more of the needs and work of the N.A.A.C.P. to his home for a time of discussion and fellowship this Friday evening at 7:30, at 1651 Casa Grande, Pasadena. Any who are interested please contact Dr. Jewett. Mr. Fletcher is a Christian businessman and chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Friendship Baptist Church. PKJ
