HAPEL

Tuesday
Our speaker will be Ruperto Velez, one of the outstanding evangelicals of Columbia, South America. He is a pastor, a teacher, an administrator, and a gifted preacher. With him will be Dr. Ed Murphy, alumnus of SWM and now an executive director of Overseas Crusades. Leader, Dave Wilkinson.

Wednesday
Dr. John Winston, Jr., distinguished Fuller alumnus, Dean of the Faculte Libre de Theologique which is the only French-speaking evangelical seminary in the world. Special music by Shin Asami. Leader, L. Cardwell.

Thursday
The Rev. Jack Hayford, pastor of Church On The Way. This rapidly growing work has attracted wide attention and it includes some of our students and staff. Special music by Jean Underwood. Leader, Dave Wenger.

Friday
Dr. William Sanford LaSoR, Professor of Old Testament. Special music, Harley Oaks. Leader, Don McCullough.

Notice: Deferred payments are due. We are now on computer and will not be sending bills. Please remember that you cannot register for Spring Quarter or receive your grades for this Quarter until your account is paid. See Claire Wartenberg in the Business Office, and it will help speed matter if you bring your record of payments for this Winter Quarter. Thank you. CW

'O ALL STUDENTS WISHING TO TEACH GREEK: If you are interested in teaching Greek, please give me your box number so I can forward an application form to you. If you are genuinely interested, please request an application; do not let a variety of mythological reasons "I've never taught before," "I've forgotten all my Greek, etc." deter you from applying. Thank you. E. Behrens
