CHAPEL SCHEDULE:

Tuesday:  Wycliffe Bible Translators -- four representatives, with Totonak Indian, presenting Bible translation work.
(Paul Balisky, Leader)

Wednesday:  Dr. Francis Steele, Home Secretary, North Africa Mission.
(Harold Milner, Senior Leader)

Thursday:  Mr. Michael Halleen, Senior Student.
(Cameron Nelson, Senior Leader)

Friday:  FMF Seminar -- Dr. Roddy.

NEXT TUESDAY IN CHAPEL:  Dr. Everett F. Harrison.

FMF SEMINAR:  Dr. Roddy will lead a special session on Friday in chapel, in which prayer will be focused on Fuller graduates now serving on various mission fields.

MIDDLE YEAR IN MISSIONS:  There will be an evaluation of the past, present, and future of the MIM program on Wednesday, 12:30-1:00 p.m. in the Student Lounge.
A number of students have expressed a desire to see this program strengthened and expanded.

What Do Methodists Believe?  Following chapel on Thursday, join us for prayer, and devotions from the Articles of Religion, in the Library Chapel.

METHODIST STUDENTS will lunch together on Thursday (12:30) in the Refectory.  Our guest will be the Rev. Edward Martin from the Minnesota Conference.  Appointments can be made with Dr. Martin at the reception desk.

All students who (1) are considering Canadian IVCF staff, (2) are considering ministry in Canada, or (3) wish to ask personal or ministry-related questions, are urged to make an appointment to meet Mr. Wilbur Sutherland (General Secretary, IVCF of Canada) on February 10 or 11.  Contact Gordon Reid.  Mr. Sutherland will also chat informally with students after coffee and at lunch on February 10.

EVANGELISM SCHOLARSHIP GRANTS:  Here are some of the exciting full-time and part-time openings for students who desire a ministry in evangelism this summer:
(a) the Billy Graham Crusade in Denver in August,
(b) working with George Webber in the East Harlem Protestant Parish in New York, June through August,
(c) working with Evangelist Ross Rhoads in the Pinebrook Bible Conference, June through Labor Day.
All expenses paid, plus help on next year's Seminary bill.  See Dr. Booth for details.

COOKING PROBLEMS add interest for a newly-married couple in Iran.  Get the details on the FMF bulletin board on the third floor.

SUMMER EMPLOYMENT:  The Employment Director has a directory listing over 40,000 specific summer jobs available throughout the United States and Canada.  Time magazine calls this "Your best single reference to jobs."  Jobs listed include work at resorts, summer camps, restaurants, national parks, amusement parks, motels, resort hotels, ranches, etc.  Directory is available for your use Mondays through Fridays, 2:15-3:15 p.m., at the office (rear of Dorm 190). SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHER needed for College Department at Wilshire Presbyterian Church (Third St. at Western Ave., L.A.) Clarence Wright, pastor. Normally the only requirement would be to handle the one hour of Sunday School each week. Remuneration plus car allowance. Those interested in this opportunity should contact Dr. Archer right away. BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT: Two games eventuated last week, but the frantic pace of the opening contests had decidedly diminished. Yesterday's action saw Dorm 98 pitted against the pudgy-but-powerful Married Maulers. Playing at 9 A.M. (???) and suffering from an overdose of breakfast (French toast, cereal, sugar and milk, etc.) the 98 Four confidently expected to control the boards...the floor boards, that is. However, the team held together (as did George's new Christmas gym shorts) and sustained a respectable 21-13 loss. In an earlier contest last week, Lorenz' Lakers toppled Sylt-Minus-His-Stilts, 21-18. Games this week: 98 vs. 200; 150 vs. 190; 180 vs. M. DO
