In our recent convocation I inadvertently said that Fuller Seminary had the only evangelical Bookstore in Pasadena. It slipped my mind at the moment that the Icthus Christian Bookstore, 1583 East Colorado Boulevard has been in operation for a couple of years. My apologies go to the managers of the Icthus Bookstore and particularly to our student, Phil Jones, for this oversight. David Allan Hubbard

SUMMER HEBREW: Students planning to take Hebrew 15 this summer should pre-register this week in Dean Barker's office. The number of sections to be scheduled this summer will depend on this pre-registration. Thank you for your assistance. WW

GREEK EXAM: Could those students who failed to pass the Greek Entrance Exam given in September and who plan to resit the examination on April 22, please drop a note in my box with your name and phone numbers. I will contact you to determine a time convenient for everyone to take the 3 hour exam. Eric Behrens

A student committee is being formed to evaluate and revise our present student body constitution to effectively meet the needs of the students. If you have an interest in student government and would like to serve on this committee, contact Don Grant, Box 225, by Wednesday, April 17, and indicate your field of study (Theol., SWM, or Psych). DG

CLASS ELECTIONS for next year's Middler and Senior Class Representatives and Presidents will be held on May 1. Please submit nominations (until April 29) to Nick Warner or Mac Shaw. NBW

Because of a problem with petty thievery, it is necessary to remind the student body that children and juveniles are to be allowed on campus only as guests of a student who is with them at the time. Please help us enforce this rule if you see unescorted youth on campus, but let us do so with love and "a measure of grace." Thank you. Student Council Student Council Meetings are open to all students—they are not exclusive meetings. Any student may come every Thursday morning at 7:00 a.m. in the Geneva Room. JIR

Plan now to participate TUESDAY, APRIL 30 in the NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER AND FASTING. This will be our quarterly day of prayer. JIR
