Those who have been at Fuller for some time, say that the winter quarter is the hardest period of the year for students. Perhaps this happens because it lacks the freshness of fall and the promise of summer in the spring quarter. Whatever the reasons, it seems that the whole campus needs extra encouragement during the winter doldrums to hang in there and keep on going. So, where do we go for encouragement? Our friends, work mates, family? Hopefully, but encouragement may also come from the quiet words and deeds that acquaintances, and even strangers may provide.

At Fuller I've been encouraged by so many people over the years. I receive encouragement from Mrs. Olive Brown's flower arrangements and displays in the library; Dr. John Court's team at the Psychological Center reaching out to the community; Gloria Moore's warm welcome when I pay my bill at the Housing Services; Betty Berg's cheery greeting every time I phone the Switchboard; sitting in chapel and listening to the Fuller Gospel and Chapel Choirs; and Dr. George Pallil coming faithfully every night to lock-up the library.

When I sit down and think, there comes to mind so many people who contribute to our lives in such gentle ways. I enjoy watching Hank Bowman, of Building Services, hand out candy to the Koinonia children in the afternoon; Ruth Vuong’s...

W as I really the one who suggested that we have our staff meeting here? After my first bite, I slowly turned to glance at the sullen faces of my fellow employees. After all, they trusted me. They had put all of their faith (not to mention their stomach and digestive systems) in my hands, and I had failed them. I thought for sure that my glamorous career was finished.

I knew there was going to be a problem when the waitress told me that the mash potatoes were instant. From my first bite of the mixed vegetables on my plate, I had a vision of eskimos digging carrots out of the snow at the North Pole. At least their carrots are thawed by the warmth of the winter sun and not by the radiation out of a metal box. I don’t know how I thought I could beat the system by not ordering the instant mashed potatoes because the waitress seemed to chuckle silently when she brought out my previously frozen fries, now steaming hot with a pleasantly appealing radioactive glow.

My main entree was chopped steak with mushrooms. I think the beef was a leftover hamburger patty from the Bob’s Big Boy that was here before the mushrooms were (you guessed it) frozen. My colleagues’ plates were equally as boring as mine, reminding me of a Hungry Man frozen dinner that I had eaten a couple of nights before.

I guess they thought I was a little crazy when I asked for the desert menu after this. It would be kind of like asking a car jacker “So where we goin’?” When the waitress told me that all of the bakery items were made fresh in the restaurant, I felt a slight twitch in my stomach. What a pleasant surprise! I was all ready for Sarah Lee. I must admit the pecan pie I ordered was fantastic, and the cup of coffee I had was good too. The bakery holds the saving grace at CoCo’s. Ordering dinner here is like having a steak at Baskin Robbins. Stick to the deserts and you’ll be ok.

So, if you’re up late from studying and need a place for a hot cup of coffee and a tasty slice of pie, then this is the place — but be sure and stop somewhere else for dinner. Until next time, may your tummies be happy and your heartburns be few.

In the past if you came up to the second floor of Kreyssler Hall (You know the building the Catalyst is in) you may have found the door closed. Regrettably, we were not able to keep the office open as much as we had wanted. But all that has changed. We now would like to announce our new office hours. We are open:

Mondays-Thursdays from 9:00 -5:00
Fridays from 10:00-3:00.

The office will be closed on:
Mondays from 10:00-11:00 for Denominational meetings, Wednesdays 10:00-11:00 for Chapel, Thursdays from 10:00-11:30 for staff meetings.

We are here to help you and we encourage you to stop by. We want to talk with you and find out more about you. Just to get the introductions started here is something about us. There are five of us working in the office. We are all students and represent the three schools of Fuller. Some of the people you can meet in our office are:

Katie Price Foster our Program Coordinator
Chuck and Dee Lehman our Marriage and Family Care Co-Interns
Ellen Barbou the Spiritual Formation Intern
Thea DeGroot who is working as office support.

We are now looking for a new member to run the Bridge to Sobriety program.

are also relevant to the Christian lifestyle and the Christian experience. C.S. Lewis is not merely a fascinating literary figure. For many of us, he is a powerful role model in our maturity as disciples of Jesus Christ, who has written works of great inspiration and reflection. In his spiritual journey, we have seen our own, and we admire and applaud him for his ability to express it articulately, passionately, in ways that we can’t hope to rival.

So before I even have seen this movie, I want to say that Shadowlands is an important movie—it is important to us because it has revealed the hidden audiences in America. These audiences want to see motion pictures and television shows that say something about humanity, that say something about the human soul and the depths of our spirit.

The difference that Shadowlands makes is not the difference between Christian and non-Christian entertainment, but is the difference between edifying and non-edifying entertainment. Not just entertainment that makes us feel good or happy, but the stuff that strengthens our hearts and souls. I recommend recent movies like Faraway, So Close and In the Name of the Father, too. Both about the tenacity of the human spirit. That’s what we need more of!

I went to see it. And I wasn’t disappointed. Go.

care and commitment to the student body over the years; Dan Payne’s elfish humor that greets me at the Mail Center; the meticulous detail of Dave Majori of Total Food Management; and Elaine Fox’s embracing of her flock in the Hispanic Ministries—all these and so many more, who encourage me daily by who they are.

We are surrounded by a great cloud of encouragers. So let’s be encouraged by those around us who by their lives display God’s grace and love. Time fails to tell me of all the faculty and students who have also contributed encouragement during my Fuller pilgrimage.

And for us? Perhaps we can become a source of encouragement ourselves, by giving a smile or a bow of greeting when we pass somebody in the mall; a handshake; a listening ear; a hug; a word of thanks or praise for a job well done; opening a door for someone; saying “thank you”; a note of appreciation to a professor; or just a simple recognition of somebody’s existence as you sit in class together—may lift the spirit of one who is discouraged.

I pray that this winter quarter for you will be one full of God’s Presence as we “encourage one another daily, as long as it is called Today, so that none of us may be hardened by sin’s deceitfulness” (Hebrews 3:13).

Alcohol and Drug Recovery Ministry in the Local Church

This Ministry Enrichment Seminar will demonstrate how a local church can have a Christian ministry related to the person with alcohol and drug problems. Resources will be distributed to show how to start such a ministry. It will be based on the “Christ in the Vineyard” model of the La Canada Presbyterian Church which was started in 1977. Reference will be made to 12 step programs, which would also be a part of a local church’s ministry. Mr. Wally Qua will be presented this seminar on Thursday, January 27, 1994, 11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. in Payton Hall, Room 101. For more information contacts the Office of Field Education, (818) 584-5377.

Intergenerational Asian Ministry: A Panel Discussion

Rev. Young Lee Hertig will present this Ministry Enrichment Seminar on Monday, February 7, 1994, 7:00 p.m. in Payton Hall, Room 101. The seminar will consist of an open dialogue addressing the multiple issues facing intergenerational ministry in an attempt to bring understanding and support in the work of the Asian churches especially in the American context. For more information, contact the Office of Field Education, (818) 584-5377.

The Alumni/ae office is now accepting applications for the Annual Phon-a-thon. Our purpose will be to encourage Alumni/ae involvement in raising funds for student assistance. Experience is preferred, but not required. All telemarketers will be trained extensively prior to the Phon-a-thon. You must be a current student or staff member, or an alum; be available for most evening hours, Mondays through Thursdays, between February 7 and March 7 (exact schedule is pending); articulate, friendly, enthusiastic, persistent, punctual, a great listener, and not allergic to having fun. Remuneration is fantastic. A complete Job Description and Applications are now available in the Development/Alumni Office (located at 535 E. Walnut St.). Applications need to be completed and returned to the Development/Alumni Office as soon as possible!

The guest speakers for Chapel, January 26, are the Dynamic Duo, Drs. Jack and Judy Balswick, both professors in the School of Psychology. They will be speaking to us about "The God of Relationships" who shows us how we are to relate to one another. Their scriptural texts are Genesis 17: 1-7 and 1 John 4: 7-21. We will have coffee and a time of fellowship after the service.

Chapel - Wednesday, Jan. 26, First Congregational Church
10:00-10:50 a.m.

The Chapel, January 27, features missionary couple, Ian and Caralee Loring from Albania. They will be sharing about their mission and ministry to the people of Albania. The prayer focus for the service will be Latin America. Come worship the Lord together in this community service.

NEWS

ALL CAMPUS WOMEN’S CONCERNS MEETING
Please join us for refreshments and community building among Fuller women on Tuesdays, 11:30-1 pm, in the back room of the Catalyst. Make sure to come February 25 to hear Rev. Barbara Stout of Trinity Presbyterian Church who will be our guest speaker. All welcome!

WANT TO HAVE A PARTY?
Or meeting? Or special get together? Wedding? Come to the ASC office to rent the catalyst main lounge or back room for your function. Procedures are as follows:
1. Come to the ASC office and reserve your date.
2. Fill out a Catalyst Use Agreement form and pick up the key to the Catalyst the last business day before the event is to take place.
3. The rental fee is $20, payable at the time you pick up the key.
4. Return the key to the ASC office on the following business day by 5:00 pm.
The Catalyst can be used by any group related to Fuller Theological Seminary.

BE SET FREE FROM THE STUDY WOES
Take advantage of the discounted YMCA memberships offered through the ASC. We’re still signing people up for yearly memberships to the Foothill (Pasadena) and San Marino (S. Pasadena) YMCAs. The prices are as follows:
San Marino:
Single $95  Foothill: Single $55
Couple $165  Couple $95
Family $195  Family $115
All you do is come by the ASC office (1st floor of the Catalyst) and bring your check for the amount of the membership you want. We’ll give you a form that will be your ticket for a membership card. Questions? Call 584-5452.

FULLER FOLLIES ARE ON ITS WAY...
And we need your talent! Fuller is full of so many funny, exciting people and this is the best opportunity to show it. If you have a talent, any kind of talent (1), come see Ana Gan, Events Coordinator in the ASC office. Leave a note or call 584-5452.

SPORTS NOTES
The volleyball and basketball intramural season is off to a great start! We encourage you to come out and play, or come out and support the teams. Any more info you need is located on the Sports Board located in the garth, between the pay phone and the Faculty Commons.

GRACE AND MERCY TAPES
They are still available in the ASC office. If you are not familiar with Jeff Reynolds’ music, you need to check it out. He performed a fabulous concert at Fuller Fall quarter ’93. Buy a tape at the ASC office and listen to some great acoustic guitar picking and praise.
FINANCIAL AID NEWS:

Several new and exciting changes have occurred in financial aid. Really... take our word for it... they are exciting.

First, for all of you who have waited patiently for the "extra mula" loan application, the Department of Education just distributed this new application that can be used to apply for three different types of loans — the Subsidized Stafford, Unsubsidized Stafford, and SLS. It is known as the "Common Loan Application" and is currently available at your nearest Financial Aid Office (that would be us), or from your local lender (if you use an out-of-state lender, you should contact them directly for the form). There are some subtleties to completing this new handy dandy application. We encourage all who request an application to ask for some instruction regarding application completion.

Second, all returning students will receive a "Renewal Application". This will take place of the FAFSA that everyone completed last year. It will contain all of last year's information. Students are required to make any changes to the application as necessary. Hopefully, this new system will be less time-consuming. Some students will receive a Renewal Application in the mail. These students must complete the form and return it to our office. The majority of students will be able to pick up a Renewal Application at the Office of Financial Aid during the first week of February, as well as other financial aid material.

These are significant changes, and we anticipate that many of you will have questions. Please stop by for a chat or give us a call at 818-584-5422.

NATIONAL FEDERATION OF THE BLIND OF CALIFORNIA, INC.

The NFB offers annual awards ranging from $2,000 to $10,000 to legally blind persons pursuing graduate studies. To be eligible for the 1994 NFB scholarship, applications, transcripts, and all other supporting documents must be received no later than March 31, 1994. Applications are available in the Office of Financial Aid. Send applications to:

Peggy Pinder, Chairman, National Federation of the Blind Committee
814 4th Ave, Suite 200
Grimmell, IA 50112

COLLEGE WOMEN'S CLUB OF PASADENA:
The Women's Club is offering scholarship and fellowship awards to women in the PhD and PsyD programs, starting at $1,500 for the academic year. To apply, each applicant must submit four clear and legible sets of the following to the Office of Financial Aid:

1. Completed application form
2. One-page, typed, personal essay
3. Transcript of college work to date, including current course commitments
4. Three recommendations, preferably from professors familiar with a student's aspirations and achievements. Deadline: Submit all materials to the Office of Financial Aid by 5pm, January 24, 1994

CALIFORNIA GRADUATE FELLOWSHIPS:

These large, competitive fellowships assist California residents who are preparing for a career in teaching at the college level. Students whose parents have a modest income and education are encouraged to apply. GRE scores are required. Contact Financial Aid immediately if interested. Deadline: All forms and test scores must be received by the California Student Aid Commission by March 2, 1994

Note: Current recipients applying for renewal must complete a 1994-95 Financial Aid Application.

PC-USA WOMEN IN THE MDiv. PROGRAM:
The Lydia Fund offers a generous scholarship to women who: 1) are in a MDiv. program; 2) plan to serve as an ordained pastor in a PC-USA church; 3) have an undergraduate degree; 4) worked full-time or held a full-time volunteer position for at least one year prior to beginning seminary; and 5) have a desire to work for renewal within the denomination.

If you meet these criteria, stop by our office for more information and an application. It might make your day.

IMPORTANT BORROWER INFORMATION:

Federal Regulations specify that 1) you must contact your lender within ten (10) days if you change your enrollment status, name, or address; 2) you may owe a Refund to your lender if you drop to zero units in a quarter that is part of your loan period (so check with Financial Aid before you drop classes); 3) Fuller must assess financial aid, included designated grants from outside sources, when loan checks arrive. If total aid received exceeds estimated aid, any Over Award must be returned to the lender; 4) Fuller must return unsigned loan checks after forty-five (45) days.
