DR. CARNELL'S notes for first quarter Systematic Theology 431 are available in duplicated form. Sign up at Reception Desk. This is the last chance for Dr. Carnell's Systematic notes.

SEMINARY DINING ROOM CLOSED FRIDAY EVENING, April 22. (No supper that night). Students holding meal tickets will receive a 35¢ refund at the Bursar's office. If you have purchased your Banquet ticket, take it to the Bursar for your 35¢ refund.

NEW BOOK DISPLAY - new books, fully processed and ready to circulate, are displayed on a special cart in the stack room downstairs.

PRAYER ROOM - several students have wondered whether or not we might have a prayer room here in the building. We deeply appreciate this agitation, for it means that our students are students of piety and prayer. I regret that probably nothing can be done along this line until the library building has been erected. Our present, cramped conditions must be tolerated until the Lord provides. Thank you for your patience. President Carnell.
SPECIAL LECTURE AT PASADENA COLLEGE — Dr. Paul T. Culbertson, dean of the college and professor of psychology, will be delivering the annual H. Orton Wiley Lectures sponsored by the Division of Graduate Studies in Religion at the Pasadena College. His subject will be "Some Psychological Aspects of Christian Growth." The Lectures will be given in the conference room of the library, April 25-28 at 7 p.m. (except Wednesday, April 27th when the Lecture will begin at 7:30 p.m.)

M.R.E. STUDENTS — If there are any M.R.E. students who will be seniors next year and are anticipating graduation next year, it will be necessary for them to make application for admission to the Senior Class.

PRACTICAL WORK — An independent church in Arcadia (mission church started by the San Gabriel Union Church) is looking for a part time Youth Director. Someone who has had experience in organizing a youth program. The work is remunerative, the amount will depend upon the time that the student can devote to the work. See Mr. Cox.

WANTED — Two fellows to work around the Seminary properties this summer. One fellow for painting and the other for general custodian work. If interested contact Mr. Curley. Those who have already discussed work opportunities with Mr. Curley should check with him again.

CHAPEL SCHEDULE — Thursday — Miss Ruth Needham
Friday — Dr. Andrew Gin

WILL YOUR FUTURE FIND YOU IN SERVICE? If so you may be interested in talking with (Capt.) Cleo Buxton, General Secretary for Officer's Christian Union. He will be in the main lobby on Thursday, April 21, from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m.
