The Semi (05-30-1984)

Fuller Theological Seminary
"The Life and Influence of Helena White Hubbard." Payton '101. Helena White Hubbard was converted to Christianity in a Baptist congregation in New York State in the earlier part of this century. She was later ordained to pastoral ministry by an independent pentecostal congregation. Her husband, who was a former Methodist missionary, professor, and pastor, served alongside her in a charismatic ministry of preaching and teaching. Helena White Hubbard’s life and influence has indelibly marked the history of Fuller Seminary. This message will be presented in Tuesday’s chapel by her son, David Allan Hubbard, our President. Sponsored by the Women’s Concerns Committee.

Honors Convocation. Presbyterian Sanctuary. Our president will lead our community in recognition of various accomplishments during the past year by members of our student body, staff and faculty. The various prizes from the different departments and schools will be awarded. This is always an exciting event and the entire community is encouraged to join the celebration.

Morning Worship. Payton 101. Dr. Charles Ridley of our School of Psychology will lead our service. He will preach on Psalm 103:1-13. These are very special times of spiritual refreshing and you are cordially invited.

MONEY BLUES?
Write your story.
Send to ASC (Box 92)
by Friday, May 25

Does your cash flow go out more than it comes in? Is the cost of tuition at Fuller a burden? Is financial aid inadequate for your need? If you answer 'yes' to any of these questions we need your help! ASC is collecting stories of any student's (individual or family) personal financial woes. No names need accompany the story (use ficticious ones). These stories will be useful in presenting to FTS administration and trustees just how individual students live (cope?) with their financial predicaments. Please take time to give us your story by sending it to Rita Rippentrop, ASC, Box 92 by May 25, 1984. Thanks for your help!

Doctor of Ministry students will be on campus May 14-25 to attend a seminar on BUILDING STRONG FAMILIES THROUGH THE LOCAL CHURCH. A list of students is posted on the general bulletin board. If you would like to contact a D.Min. student, please do so through the Doctor of Ministry office. (Call Adonna at x.3816)

If you would like to learn to be a better communicator of missions, especially in the campus setting, you may be interested in attending the Inter Varsity leadership training workshop this August in Catalina Island. For more information, please contact Betty Clark, Box 1102, x.3249.
