Tuesday - ALUMNI DAY. Dr. David Allan Hubbard, speaking.

Wednesday - Our community in worship and fellowship. Bill Pannell and team from recent meetings at Seattle-Pacific College. Prayer group reports from Bob Paul and special music by Paul Hayden.

Thursday - Dr. Elton Trueblood, distinguished author and minister of the Friends Church.

Friday - Convocation. Jointly sponsored by the School of World Mission and the School of Theology with a report from Phil Goble "Everything You Need to Start a Messianic People Movement" and a discussion period following. This promises to be an amazing innovation in the contemporary church.

All students who have the school insurance who have not received membership cards may pick them up from Claire Wartenberg this week in the Business Office.

Are you aware that all students carrying 9 or more units are required to have health insurance? If you do not have coverage at this time, you may choose to purchase the policy offered through the Business Office. See Claire for details by APRIL 10 (Thursday). Whether or not the Seminary covers you, we need to have a card on file for every student with 9 or more units, giving the name of their carrier.

In answer to your queries about taking the Renter's Credit on your California State Income Tax return: If you live in Seminary housing (or any property which does not pay property taxes) you may NOT claim the credit. If you live off-campus in property which is not tax-free, you MAY claim the credit. See page 3 in the instruction book, and fill out Part 1, Page 2 of the return. If you have already filed your return, you can get information about filing an amended return by calling the Franchise Tax Board at 620-5400 (in Los Angeles).

REMINDER: "Students expecting to graduate must notify the Registrar in writing by April 1." (quoted from the last paragraph on page 18 of the catalog).

M2-Sponsors and those interested in prison ministry come together every Monday at 10:00 a.m. in Room 101B. Pray and share experiences with fellow sponsors and gain helpful insights from our area representative Mr. Ed Phelps. There is still time to get involved in this rewarding ministry. Meet with us Monday for an application.

If you are looking for a group to pray with during the Chapel hour or prayer on Mondays (10-11) the Associates for World Evangelization would like to invite you to join us in the Chapel on the second floor of the Library. Hope you are involved in one of the many groups available to pray with at that time.

Do you feel the need for low-key group therapy? Are you curious as to what such an animal may be about? There is opportunity for you to get in on an on-going group that meets Tuesday, 1:00-2:30. Contact the PCCC for further details 795-5144.

ad Book Sale - Wednesday, April 9 from 9:00-4:00. Bring your used books to the Garth between 3-9 with your name in each book on a 3x5 card. Pick up any unsold books after 4 p.m. or the Student Council will donate them to the Salvation Army or some such organization.
Now is the time for any established groups who need student council funds to present their projected budget for next year to the student council. Any interest groups not already funded can also ask for money if they can show that their group could be beneficial to a significant number of the Fuller community. Budgets should be submitted to Bob Paul by April 18.

Some of us in the Junior Class are really enjoying putting together a special time for the half day of prayer on Thursday, April 24, 8:30-12:30. Keep it in mind as you lay out your study-play schedule for the coming weeks.

Those of us working on the Day of Prayer are in search of some musical talent – specifically a vocalist. Realizing this is an odd request we'd settle for anyone good at guitar-picking. If you can or know someone whose talent you'd like to offer, please contact Ginger Todd or Tom Heriault. Thanks.

NSTROTEACH workshops are one of the better practical experiences for learning how to be an effective teacher, especially in the church school. A person commits himself to 35 hours of instruction over two weekends, from a 6:30 p.m. dinner on Friday until 4:00 p.m. on Sunday. One is being held at the Encino Presbyterian Church on April 18-20, 25-27. The cost of $20 includes the two Friday night dinners and the textbooks. For further information see Dr. Larson and the materials on his bulletin board.

Bob Turnbull known as "The Chaplain of Waikki Beach" will be on campus on Friday, April 18 in the Geneva Room to show slides and present his work. Bob is Founder and President of The World Resort Chaplaincies and would like to meet with interested students from 10:30-12. Be sure and mark this date on your calendar and plan to meet Bob and hear of the work he is doing both in Hawaii and Palm Springs.

HANCE OF ADDRESS: Carlos Fuget, 1332 Stratford Avenue, South Pasadena, 91030 effective April 4, 1975.

In the mailbox this week you received a flyer telling of a concert featuring Paul Stookey, formerly of Peter, Paul and Mary, who is now singing for Jesus. Biola Student Missionary Union is sponsoring this night at the L.A. Convention Center on April 18. Like to go? If so, please give your name, box number, and money to Cathy Dussert in the Mail Room this week. The tickets will be delivered to your box.

The deadline for signing up for softball is past and the teams are full. There is a waiting list for late sign-ups.

In honor of Opening Day in the Fuller Softball League, the Commissioner has proclaimed Friday, April 11 as CAP Day. All players and other crazy people are invited to wear baseball caps to school Friday. The ceremonial throwing out of the first ball will be Friday at 12:00 in the baseball field.
