Biography

Jean Stone Willans (b. 1924) was a primary catalyst of the Charismatic Renewal. After experiencing the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, she was a vital participant in the historic events at her home church, St. Marks Episcopal, Van Nuys, CA. Her subsequent pilgrimage contributed to the transformation of twentieth-century Christianity. The Blessed Trinity Society was organized in 1960 to promote the renewal. It served as the supporting institution that brought Jean Stone to hundreds of churches, colleges, universities and auditoriums in the U.S.A., Canada, Mexico and Great Britain. From 1961-1965, she edited Trinity, an influential magazine “dedicated to maintaining the ‘fullness of the faith’”. The magazine spurred the early growth of the movement and coined the term “charismatic renewal.”

Called to Asia in 1967, the Willanses ministered in Indonesia and Taiwan before settling in Hong Kong (1968-1981). The couple founded the Society of Stephen, which became a primary regional fountainhead of the Charismatic Renewal, particularly among Roman Catholics. They also pioneered a ministry to drug addicts that drew international media attention due to the consistent pattern of painless withdrawal (without medication) through faith in Jesus and prayer in tongues. Since 1981, the Willanses continued their ministry based in Altadena, California.

Scope and Content

The Jean Stone Willans and Richard J. Willans Collection, 1943-2010 covers approximately 1961-2004, with some earlier documents from Jean and Rick's family histories. The collection documents the history of Jean Stone's and Rick Willans' leadership in the charismatic renewal from the moment of its beginnings at St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Van Nuys where Jean Stone was a member. The collection includes documents concerning the first organization and first publication of the movement, both initiated by Jean. The core of the collection is the complete run of Jean and Rick's newsletters while on mission in Indonesia and Hong Kong, which recount the history of their ministry. This is supplemented by a large correspondence file and several boxes of photos, documents and mementos covering the years 1967 to 1984, as well as documentation of the Memorial which was erected in Kowloon in honor of their contribution there. Also included in the collection are photos, letters, documents and mementos of a personal nature which shed light on the early character and spiritual development of both Jean and Rick. Finally there are documents covering their continuing ministry histories after the return from Hong Kong in 1984 and a collection of letters from their daughter Suzy, married and living in Britain.

The collection contains correspondence, published and unpublished works, photographs, music texts, memorabilia, scrapbooks, and other materials documenting the Willanses life and ministry.

Series Description

Series I: Blessed Trinity Society, 1961-1967- Boxes 1-3

This series documents the development and history of the Society through the departure of Jean Stone and Rick Willans for Indonesia. It includes:

Subseries 1: Blessed Trinity Society history, photos and documents

This series includes a history of the society written by Jean Stone with accompanying documents: minutes of meetings and photos of early gatherings, leaflet from the anniversary celebration, notes for a song, missionary certificates, documents concerning publications and the Trinity temple. It also includes a folder of letters and articles related to the controversy caused by the charismatic renewal, documents from Jean Stone's early speaking trips, clippings and notes regarding friends involved in the movement including Armin Gesswein, Jean Darnall, Madeleine Duncan, Bob Whitaker, and the Reverend Harold James Smith of Pisgah who helped the fledgling charismatic renewal in its earliest days. It includes a historical booklet about Pisgah Home and Tabernacle with personal note by Reverend Smith's daughter, a leaflet - "Blow a trumpet in Zion" for the 25th anniversary of the charismatic renewal celebration at Pisgah and handwritten notes regarding the invitation list for the celebration.

Subseries 2: Blessed Trinity Society publications

From 1961-1965, Jean Stone edited Trinity, an influential magazine "dedicated to maintaining the 'fullness of the faith'". The magazine spurred the early growth of the movement and coined the term "charismatic renewal." This is a collection of pamphlets, leaflets and notices published by the Blessed Trinity Society, as well as the complete run of Trinity Magazine.

Subseries 3: Testimonies

This is a collection of testimonies written by people who were touched by the ministry of the Blessed Trinity Society. The student testimonies include photos of each student.

Subseries 4: Articles submitted for publication in Trinity

Subseries 5: Published articles on the Charismatic Renewal

This is a collection of clippings, many with handwritten notes by Jean regarding her personal contact with individuals mentioned in the articles. See also Du Plessis collection, "Episcopalians Filled with the Spirit," Pentecost, Mar 1962.

Series II: Correspondence – Boxes 4-6
