Special week of Convocations on the subject of the integration of theology and psychology.

Tuesday - Dr. Neil Clark Warren, Dean of the School of Psychology.
Wednesday - Dr. John Finch, Visiting Professor of Psychology.
Thursday - Dr. David Bock, School of Psychology alumnus and practicing psychologist.
Friday - Dr. Lee Edward Travis, Dean Emeritus School of Psychology.

These will be extended Chapels beginning at 9:50 a.m. in the Sanctuary of the Congregational Church.

VETERANS: Be sure the Registrar's Office knows you are on the G.I. bill when you change your course load by adding or dropping courses. You, the veteran, are responsible for notifying the VA when you change your training time or terminate your program, and therefore you are liable to repay any over payments you might receive. Please call it to our attention any time you reduce your load, especially if you end up taking less than 12 hours. We initiate all of the changes at the Registrar's Office, but at a recent seminar the VA stressed that the Veteran has a responsibility as well as the school when changes are made which affect his pay.

FOR VETERANS: A new interpretation by the Veterans Administration allows you to receive full time benefits throughout the summer by taking the concentrated language program as scheduled. Thus you do NOT have to take an independent study course during the summer to avoid a gap in benefits as we had previously announced. If you have not already signed a statement of your intention to register this summer, please come by the Registrar's Office between 11 and 5 Tuesday, or between 2 and 5 p.m. Friday, if you want to avoid a delay in receiving your benefits.

SENIORS: Do you have your act together? If not, why not? How has Fuller helped/hindered? How do you feel about your initial post seminary experience? Write it down for the next OPINION. Let me know if you plan to write an article! Rex McDaniel

BOOKSTORE BLURB: CASSETTE TAPE DUPLICATION - For the past year the FTS BOOKSTORE has been experimenting with a tape duplication service. Man to Man, Inc. teams systematically teach and train the pastor and layment in the "how to" aspect of Visitation Evangelism; sharing one's faith and the follow-through with new believers. A concentrated two-week seminar done individually "in the field," in the San Francisco area. There is no fee for the service. Walter Bleecker, Director, will be at Fuller on May 15, to discuss this. Dr. Robert Munger strongly recommends the program and asks that all those interested in hearing the presentation please let him know before Wednesday, May 14. Those interested may also contact Glory Hees in the Education for Ministry office.
Starting this week until the end of the quarter, the LIBRARY will be open until 11:00 p.m. Note the change and thanks to the Administrative Committee.

A Mission Baptist Church in the local area is still seeking a part-time pastor. See Glory Hees for further information.

Note of the week: Although Bromiley's Bears are pretty much out of things for this year, Capt. Bob Malsack still continues his disciplinary tactics so very characteristic of his teams (i.e., 0-6). He was quoted this past week saying to one of his star players..."the only excuse I have on our team for missing a game is a death in the family.....your own!"
