Do you ever find yourself responding inappropriately to people or events at an emotional, gut level, without understanding why?

Do you ever wonder why you act so much like Dad or sound so much like Mom when you vowed never to be "that way"??

Do you desire to have a deeper understanding of God's creation that is YOU, and therefore a greater understanding of other people?

The Office of Christian Community, in cooperation with the Marriage and Family Ministries Department is offering women and men the chance to explore the sometimes difficult task of individuation (the process of becoming an individual in your own right). Families are God-given and good, but they are NOT perfect!! Much of who we are is the result of our experiences as family members when we were small. Some of these ideas and emotional responses and habits of relating are helpful, but not always. If not, we can be hindered in building healthy relationships in our present adult lives. Even though we may have left our childhood families years ago, they are still very much with us in our patterns of thinking and feeling.

Winter Quarter, OCC and MFM are offering an 8-session, weekly small group experience for women and men who are interested in exploring their family issues in the context of a caring community.

If you have any questions as to the nature of the group, etc., feel free to contact Cheryl Chenot, OCC Intern (440-9923 or Box 1367 or x3564 at Fuller).

If you are interested in joining this group, please RSVP with the Office of Christian Community NO LATER than Friday, January 11, 1985 by using the slip below:
