CHAPEL

Tuesday - The Rev. Donn Moomaw, Pastor of Bel Air Presbyterian Church.
Wednesday - A praise service in the Garth with some exciting music, Scripture and a general celebration.

If any students would like to go to someone's home for Thanksgiving dinner or share your dinner with someone, please contact the Dean of Students office.

SEMI deadline for the week of December 1 is this Wednesday, November 26 at 10 a.m. Thank you for your cooperation.

New Study Space on Campus - Lecture Hall 101 has been converted into a study room. The room will be open to all students during regular library operating hours. Please do not take meals into the study room. If you find the environment unpleasant in any respect, please let Mr. Merritt in the Business Office in on your observations.

Remember to make your appointments with your academic advisors now. You can make appointments with Sandy Wheatley for both Mel Robeck and Bob Tuttle.

WINTER QUARTER CLASS SCHEDULE CHANGES: P568 COUNSELING TROUBLED ADOLESCENTS taught by Dr. Cox is changed to Mondays 9:00-11:00 a.m. instead of the day and time listed on the schedule.

M11 EVANGELISM taught by Dr. Munger has been changed to Mondays and Wednesdays from 3:00-4:50 p.m instead of the day and time listed in the winter quarter class schedule.

The final examination for the Philippians course WI 154 for credit students will be on Monday, December 8 at 7:00 in Room 303. It will be a two-hour exam.

80% of the student body said "yes" to the FULLER FUND at registration fall term in support of the Missionary Internship program. To this the committee wishes to say "thanks." We have approximately 9 persons interested in possible internship ministry next summer and school year. Your continued good faith in our program will help send them. Remember to say "yes" again to the FULLER FUND when you register in December for the winter quarter.

To observe the NATIONAL DAY OF FASTING—join us all in the Garth at noon MONDAY, November 24 for a short time of prayer and worship. Bring the money you wish to donate to World Hunger to the offering box in the Refectory (by the cash register). We will send the contribution to World Vision.

Interested in being on the Mission Renewal Team in the Winter and Spring? Join us Monday, November 24 at 7:00 p.m. in the Geneva Room for a question and answer time.

Papers due? Finals coming up? Welcome to the Club! And welcome to Prison Ministries. Every Monday in L205 at 10:00 a.m. a group of Christians concerned about those in prison meet for prayer and support in this unique outreach. God is raising up many to serve in this area. Join us Monday or contact Larry Kidwell for more information.
regard to registering for Hermeneutics Bll (a or b) this coming winter quarter, please see the list posted by my door of those who are invited to enroll in this course. This list is made up of (1) those gaining the highest average so far in the first 3 quizzes of Intermediate (or Advanced) Greek; (2) those having the highest final scores who completed Intermediate or Advanced Greek during this calendar year, 1975, and (3) those achieving the highest scores on the Greek placement Exam taken in 1975. The cutoff points for each of these groups were determined by a proportionate number in each group that would make up a total of 90 students spread over the two sections. Room was also made for a proportionate number of those who fulfilled the Greek retirement somehow before 1975 and want to enroll now in Hermeneutics Bll. These are selected by using lots with Mel Robeck. The rest of this group can be on standby (S). If you thus accept an invitation to enroll in this course, please sign your name on the sheet posted by my office door. Those who are on the separate standby list (S) who may want to enroll, may then be allowed to do so if less than 90 are on the list by 5 p.m., Monday, December 1. Dr. Schoonhoven will teach this course again in the spring quarter. Daniel P. Fuller

God has the whole world in His hands. Come pray with us for the church around the world, Mondays:
10:00 a.m. L203 above the Library.

Attention M-2 Sponsors: We still need information from you so that we might aid all of those who need rides to their respective prisons. Please include your name, inmate's name, where you are located, if you can take riders or if you need a ride, and your phone too. Please put this info in John Person's box soon.

United Methodist students are encouraged to meet with the Rev. Steve Kobernik, Pasadena District chaplain, on Wednesday immediately following Chapel in the Geneva Room for discussion and mutual couragement. (November 26)

Interested in studying your biblical Hebrew in Israel? Combined with a 4 hour course on the physical and Historical Geography of Palestine, including field trips that cover every major area of the land. Then you'll want to come to the "get acquainted" meeting for all those interested in next summer's Hebrew in Israel Program. WHEN? Thursday, December 4, 3:00 p.m. WHERE?
Geneva Room, Payton Hall WHAT? Details of dates, costs, itinerary, etc. plus slides from the last two summer programs. F. W. Bush and for the crafts fair (for viewing or for purchase) after lunch. The speakers will be Dave Ilikan, theological ethicist; Kay Lindsa, recognized free-lance Christian author, authority on C. S. Lewis; and Joan Spencer, pastor's wife who has adapted craft ideas from coast to coast or her elementary classroom, and her home. Please take a look at the poster on the Women's bulletin Board (next to the Board of Declaration) for further details. SEE YOU THERE! Women's institute.

Parent Effectiveness Training course offering for the winter quarter will meet on Thursday evenings.
If you have not pre-registered, but still want to take the course, please check with Mel Robeck or Bob Tuttle. Women's Institute.

Ethnic Minority Students: The Pacific Northwest Conference of the United Methodist Church is seeking to implement a proposal aimed at increasing minority ethnic pastoral leadership in the confer-ce. If you are an ethnic minority student at all interested in serving in the Pacific Northwest conference would you contact David Rice, Box 281, or leave your name at the Field Education Office or more information and to insure an appointment with the visiting conference representatives.

If you were in Dr. Mercer's American Church History class this summer and wrote a term paper, he as returned them, and you can pick them up at the switchboard.

HANDBALL PLAYERS - Due to general apathy and lack of commitment by over 50% of those signed-up, the leagues have been cancelled. To those who have been committed to this, I am sorry. Watch for a new system starting in January!

HOUSING - We are receiving requests from new students desiring dormitory space for the winter quarter, and some of the fellows in the PASADENA DORMS would like to move on campus. It would help us so much if those of you who are planning on moving off campus at the end of this quarter would inform us now so that we can make the requested assignments for the winter quarter.

It would also be helpful to know at this time if any residents occupying Fuller owned apartments plan to vacate in the near future. Please leave notices in the Business Office mail box or stop by the Business Office. Marie Marcus COURSE TITLE: COMMUNITY RESEARCH 353 - Winter Quarter - 1 to 2:50 p.m.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Awareness is developed of the many pressures on people today and the pastor's unique opportunity to witness in the midst of our complex, technological society. Knowledge will be acquired about alcoholism, drug addiction, the plight of the poor and the elderly, the problems of the police and urban politics so that the pastor can become sensitive and skilled in dealing with such a diverse society, and will be able to analyze the available community resources for helping people, and thereby plan effective church strategy.

The focus of concern will be people and the necessity to plan sermons, counseling and program in response to real needs, as the Christian faith deals with the whole person.

COURSE LEADER: The Reverend Robert E. Ryland, Associate Pastor at Pasadena Presbyterian Church; 12 years as urban Pastor; founder and director of COMMIT (Center of Metropolitan Mission In-Service Training); two years intern Chaplin, San Quentin; special studies in alcoholism and drug addiction.

REQUIRED READING:

Ellul, Jacques The Meaning of the City Eerdmans Publishing Co.
Ellul, Jacques The Technological Society Eerdmans Publishing Co.
Clinebell, Howard Understanding and Counseling the Alcoholic Abingdon Press, 1968

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS:

Write a 500-word analysis of Clinebell and one of Ellul.
Develop a "resource notebook" on each area discussed.
Write a 2000-word term paper on "A Model for Community Witness."

COURSE FORMAT:

Lectures and media presentations.
Direct exposure to problem situations.
Reading assignments and "go-and-see" projects.
Development of personal resource file.
