The Ministry Department presents

DR. ROGER FREDRIKSON

Distinguished Visiting Minister

under the sponsorship of the

Gautschi Memorial Fund

Dr. Roger Fredrikson is the pastor of the First Baptist Church in Wichita, Kansas. He is the former president of the American Baptist Convention, preacher, author, conference speaker, and leader of Faith-At-Work.

The Student Council needs to have the job descriptions and running evaluations from all persons under council pay. This will help the next people who hold your jobs and will help you see more clearly how you are doing now. Give your evaluations immediately to Kathie Brooks.

Final Notice. If you wish copies of separate chapters of "Epochal Events of the Bible" (Syllabus for O.T. Theology), see Dolores Loeding this week. For the future only complete copies of this book will be available. W.S. LaSor

Attention old Pll students: We desperately need to borrow your copy of Bridges Not Walls by John Stewart to use for the next four weeks. Love your brothers and sisters; loan us your books if you can, bring them to 465 Ford Place, upstairs, secretary's office. Bless you!

Grades - pick up your own in the Registrar's Office.

The Student Directory is scheduled for publication in the early part of this quarter. Those individuals who do not want their name, address, church affiliation, spouse, number of children, phone, home address, school degree program, and photo included should write a memo to MARY REGENZA, Manager of Publications, requesting the material be withdrawn. Deadline for withdrawals will be January 13.

New students to Fuller this quarter desiring to participate in a Support Group please contact either Dr. Munger or the Education for Ministry Office.

Prison Ministries - To all our M-2 sponsors and future sponsors, we extend a warm welcome back. Our first meeting of the new quarter will be Monday, January 12 at 10:00 a.m. in Room L201. We're excited about the coming months as we reach out to those in prison. If you're interested in finding out more about the challenge and freedom of a volunteer ministry, please join us every Monday or contact Larry Kidwell. Also, we need your name, name of institution you'll visit, phone, and if you have a car. Please turn this information in to John Person.

Women Students - Informal get together with Roberta Hestenes Tuesday, January 13, 12:00-1:00. Fee, punch and cookies. Place: Lounge, ground floor, 465 Ford Place.

Attention all Mission Candidates and anyone else interested! Classes will start January 31, 9:00 a.m. at the Salvation Army on Walnut Street which teach persons how to teach English to non-English speakers. It is the Laubach method, perfected by Dr. Laubach while on the mission field and uses the approach of one-to-one and specially prepared materials. Cost is only $10.00 for 10 Saturdays of instruction. However, even this fee is "negotiable" for those unable to pay. The classes are open to all Fuller students and spouses.

Please check your old telephone lists. An obsolete number to remove is 681-9481. The new owner of this number would appreciate your not calling this number.

COMING.... The Fourth Inter-Seminary Conference for Catholics, Protestants, and Jews at Gindling Hilltop Camp near Malibu February 1-3, Sunday 5:00 p.m. until Tuesday noon. The retreat is sponsored by the Interreligious Council of Southern California and Wilshire Boulevard Camps at no cost to seminary students. Combining a time of fellowship, worship, and community together, the theme this year is "Religious Man/Secular World;" a provocative questioning of religion in our world. See Karen Kiser or drop a note in her box if you are interested in further details.

Wayne Carlson from Mission Springs Conference Center will be at Fuller on Monday, February 2 to interview for summer staff. Please sign up for an appointment through the Education of Ministry office.
